MARSHALL WINS MOSCOW MANEUVER

POPE HOPEFUL FOR ENDURING WORLD PEACE

PONTIFF VIGOROUS AT 71, MEETS TWO AP WRITERS

BY CHARLES H. GUPTILL AND JOHN P. McKNIGHT
World Copyright 1947, by the Associated Press

Vatican City, March 11 (AP)—Pope Pius XII, completing the eighth year of reign in a tempestous world, told the Associated Press today he was hopeful the world would achieve a just and lasting piece but the price might be agreements which would curtail to some degree the sovereign rights of nations.

Receiving two Associated Press correspondents in a private audience, he commented that positive, constructive ideas have not as yet entered the building of peace, but he expressed the hope the United Nations organization might be placed in a position effectively to guarantee the security of all.

Outlook Clouded

Last year the Pontiff had seemed weary from the long ceremonies. Today, at 71—he celebrated his birthday and the eighth anniversary of his election 10 days ago—the vigor of his personality was more than ever in contrast to the frailty of his body. Tomorrow is the anniversary of his coronation.

But his lean face clouded and his voice was touched with sadness when his visitors remarked upon the unprecedented world tragedies which beset the first eight years of his reign.

Nor did he conceal his preoppupation when the current Moscow conference and the difficulties facing it were mentioned. He nodded assent that the beginnings of the conference did not augur well for the solid achievements.

The Pope was asked whether events of the last year had tended to dissipate the world's feeling of uncertainty and anxiety over prospects for a just and lasting peace.

Despite the indefatigable diligence and determined efforts made by certain statesmen and some progress for the moment along one or another particular line, he replied, the events of the last year do not add up to a marked improvement in the world's outlook for a just and lasting peace.

Refugees Need Help

Moreover, the Pope said, he is afraid that this unfortunate condition will continue so long as thepeace of Europe and of the world is considered solely under the light of what each state demands for its own individual sesecurity, and in the existing precarious circumstances one is allowed to increase its strategic positions and present its neighbor with accomplished facts.

The Pontiff was asked what, in the present period of relative and perhaps temporary tranquility, were his aspirations for the continued advancement of the church and for the greater well-being of mankind.

The Holy See, he said, is the center of the universal church. The end for which Christ established that church is the ultimate goal of all the Pope does, hopes and prays for.

To attain that end, he said, the church requires freedom of action in every region of the world, and one must be constantly intent on defending and protecting that freedom.

At the present moment, he con-

CONVICTS WANT WAR BACK-PAY

Grand Rapids Firm Sued For $1,000,000 By Three Inmates

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 11 (AP)—Three inmates of Southern Michigan prison today filed federal court suit for $1,000,000 against the Gunn Furniture Co., charging violation of the Wage-Hour Law in connection with the employment of prison labor during the war.

The complaint was signed by Charles M. Huntley, Robert A. Baker and Earl A. Beduna, who said they were acting for themselves and 225 other inmates.

They accused the [illegible] of using prison labor to [illegible] more than 300,000 shell casings during the war, working the men 12 hours a day, six days a week, for 52½ cents a day.

The action asked for $1,000,000 for uncompensated time, overtime pay and liquidated damages.

The trio claimed that the company violated the Fair Labor Standards Act and said they also believed the state law had been violated.

Company officials declined comment, other than to say they had received notice of the suit.

Fred Munnell, manager of the state prison industries, declined comment on the charges, but said a presidential executive order permitted prison help to work on goods under government contract during the war. The state law, he said, had been amended for the same purpose.

Munnell said the state had contracted with the Dean Engineering Division of Gunn Furniture Co. to make stampings for shell casings. The Gunn company held the contract from the Army Ordnance Department.

He said the company paid the Michigan prison industries department on a piecework basis. The state in turn paid the prisoners the regular 52½ cent a day rate they receive for any such labor, Munnell explained.

He added that "at no time" were the prisoners working for the company, but were doing regular prison work similar to the system by which inmates make auto license plates for the state.

Mt. Clemens Home Robbed Of $15,400, Liquor And Jewels

Mt. Clemens, Mich., March 11 (AP)—Police today sought a clue to the thieves who cracked a safe and escaped with $15,400 in cash from the home of Mrs. Leona Theut.

They also took jewelry and a supply of expensive liquor while she was attending a neighborhood theater Monday night.

Mrs. Theut told officers she had the cash on hand as a result of collections of rentals on property she owns.

Sand Truck Deluges Graders, One Killed

Los Angeles, March 11 (AP)—An 11 year-old-girl, Patricia Nosen was killed today when an automobile bearing five sixth-graders on an outing collided with a dump truck and was deluged with sand as the bigger vehicle overturned.

The other four youngsters and the car's driver, Mrs. Margaret McNamara Keit, were only superficially hurt. Resuscitation efforts on little Patricia were futile.

Two More Los Angeles Women Are Victims Of Brutal Night Murders

Los Angeles, March 11 (AP)—Death in the dark struck down two more women today, bringing to four the unsolved murders in an outbreak of feminine slaughter which began Jan. 15 with discovery of the body of the "Black Dahlia."

Police identified one of them as Evelyn Winters, 42, divorced wife of Sidney Justin, head of Paramount Studio's legal department.

But hours after the discovery of the second body, her identity was obscure.

Japanese mustard growers found the ravished body on a river bank in nearby Norwalk, strangled with an electric light cord and a blue-and-white quilted bathrobe twisted about her neck. Tire prints found on a road a short distance away were studied, as were a pillow, pillowslip, and under garments discovered nearby.

The red-haired woman's face bore cuts, and there were other indications of a struggle along the sandy bank, investigating deputies reported.

A few hours earlier, shortly after midnight, the bludgeoned, knifed and ravished body of a former film studio legal expert, Evelyn Winters, 42, was found nearly nude along railroad tracks almost in the shadow of the city hall.

George Franklin Wickliffee, 28, of Joplin, Mo., who found the body, was booked on suspicion of murder, but Det.-Sgt. Marty Wynn said:

"We believe she was brought there in an automobile. That would let him out."

Wickliffee voiced denial, and Lieut. Charles King reported:

"He had lipstick on his lips but said, in explanation, that he had knelt and kissed the woman before giving notice he had found the body."

King said identification of Miss Winters was made from fingerprints taken when she was arrested for resorting, intoxication and driving while intoxicated.

Still unsolved are the slayings in January of the "Black Dahlia," Elizabeth Short, 22-year-old Medford, Mass., film hopeful, who was mutilated and her severed body left in a vacant lot, and Jeanne T. French, 45, pioneer aviatrix and flight hostess and screen bit actress, trampled to death in February a few hours after leaving a drive-in restaurant with a small, dark man. An obscene inscription in lipstick had been written across her breasts.

THREE NEGROES ADMIT TORTURE

Grand Rapids Attack Is Linked To $100,000 Sugar Stamp Deal

Grand Rapids, March 11 (AP) — Three men were held for sentence today after they admitted torturing 53-year-old George Arrington in what police described as an attempt to locate a cache of black market profits.

The incident here has been linked with an alleged nationwide sugar black market being investigated by a Chicago grand jury.

Herbert (Money Slim) Foreman, 28, Raymond Lewis, 29, and Wallington Earst, 36, all Chicago negroes, pleaded guilty in superior court to assault charges. Date of sentencing was not set.

They were charged with beating and burning Arrington's feet in an attempt to force him to disclose the whereabouts of $38,000 they believed hidden by his 27-year-old son, Broadway. The Arringtons also are negroes.

Four unidentified men also were said by police to have taken part in the assault.

The money, police said, was believed to have been part of $100,000 in possession of the younger Arrington as a result of illicit dealings in sugar ration coupons.

Broadway Arrington has been indicted on OPA violation charges.

Lilienthal Backed By Forty Senators

Washington, March 11 (AP) — Four more senators—two Democrats and two Republicans — announced today they will vote for confirmation of David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The announcements, by Senators George (D-Ga), McGrath (D-RI), Young (R-ND), and Wilson (R-Iowa), brought Lilienthal's known Senate supporters to 40, compared to 18 who have said they will vote against him. A majority of the present Senate membership is 48.

Debate is expected to open tomorrow, probably after dinner, in the first regularly scheduled night session of the year

HOUSE RUSHES WINDUP OF OPA

Two Big Appropriation Bills Approved And Sent To Senate

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Two big appropraition bills—one killing off OPA next June 30 and the other making a controversial $800,000,000 cut in treasury funds—were rammed through the house and sent to the senate today after Democrats made futile attempts to change them.

The bill containing the OPA death sentence is a $179,645,668 deficiency bill, supplying funds for various agencies.

The other provides $12,388,029,971 for the treasury and post office departments.

Roundly defeated in attempts at amendments, the Democrats gave up and voted with solid Republican ranks for the treasury-post office bill. The final tally was 387 to 0.

In the fight over this bill, Rep. Gore (D-Tenn) spearheaded a Democratic move to retain a standard indefinite sum for the payment of tax refunds. The Republican - controlled appropriations committee had tossed this out in favor of a definite $1,231,000,000 fund, $800,000,000 below budget bureau estimates.

Gore insisted that the government must pay whatever refunds are due, regardless of the amount, and accused the Republicans of trying to take credit for a "phony" $800,000,000 reduction.

FIERY PEORIA RAILWAY BOSS SLAIN IN DARK

GEORGE McNEAR JR. KILLED IN AMBUSH GANGLAND STYLE

BY WILLARD ROBERTSON

Peoria, Ill., March 11. (AP)—Police began questioning striking railroad workers today about the mysterious shotgun assassination of railroad President George P. McNear, Jr., and in Washington the department of justice said it was giving "immediate active study" to the case.

The department made its announcement after Chairman Hartley (R-N. J.) of the House labor committee said he would ask Attorney General Tom Clark to order an FBI investigation.

Authorities here coordinated their efforts for a full study of the gangland style slaying and State's Attorney Roy Hull said everyone would be questioned who might throw any light on the slaying.

On Nightly Stroll

McNear, fiery 55 year old head of the strife-beset Toledo Peoria & Western railroad, was killed from ambush by a single blast last night as he took his customary nightly stroll along a dark street near his home in a fashionable neighborhood. He was struck in the neck and chest by six pea-sized double O gauge buckshot pellets.

An investigation of the road's long labor strife followed a strategy conference attended by Mayor Carl Triebel, Chief of Police Victor Klarich, Chief of Detectives Fred Nussbaum, Hull, Chief Harry Curtis of the Illinois state highway police and Sheriff Earl Spainhower.

Triebel said the police were "without a single clue" but Nussbaum said later that investigators had "several clues" which he declined to divulge.

Old Threats Recalled

The department of justice in Washington declined to go beyond its announcement that "every phase" of the case was being studied.

However, a federal court injunction is in force restraining anyone from any acts which would prevent operation of trains over the strike-plagued line. Although the 17 months old strike continued, the line resumed some operations recently.

Detectives Harry Schultz and George Gridley said the slayer or slayers apparently stalked McNear for several days, learning his habit of taking a nightly stroll. However, Hull, Spainhower and Nussbaum said they had "no idea" whether a killer had been imported for the job or was a resident of the vicinity.

Investigators also sifted old threats and recent acts of violence in their search for a motive for the killing.

Detective Chief Fred Nussbaum said there were no witnesses to the actual killing, no major clues and no established motive as yet. Investigators, however, said they learned McNear had received threats from an anonymous telephone caller as long as two years ago to "blow up" his house or his car.

Police also said two unsolved shootings within the last two weeks had marked the long years of labor strife on the strike-beset railroad. They said shots were fired into an automobile carrying non-union workers near the line's East Peoria yards and into one of

Secrets Of Senate Leaking Out, Says Grand Rapids Solon

Lansing, March 11 (AP)—Senator James C. Quinlan, Grand Rapids Republican, objected today that the Senate's secrets were leaking into the newspapers.

On the Senate floor, Quinlan said "we had an executive session lasting one hour and 35 minutes last week and when I got home I read it all in the newspapers, and it was all there. There must be a leak in the Senate. As men who agree to a rule of secrecy let's keep that agreement, or throw the rule out."

The closed executive session considered the confirmation of two of Governor Sigler's appointments to the State Liquor Control Commission. Executive sessions were restored this year by the Senate after several years of open sessions.

Senator Harold D. Tripp, Allegan Republican, proposed the Senate consider confirmations in secret but vote on the appointments in public.

"I agree," said Quinlan, "I don't care who knows how I vote, but if we are going to have a rule let's follow it."

Truman Gives Talk At Noon Today On Curbing Communism

Washington, Mar. 11 (AP)—President Truman will address a joint session of Congress tomorrow—and the nation—in a policy statement which may set far-reaching new standards for American diplomacy around the world.

The issue is: What the United States should do to stem the tide of Communism abroad.

The president's speech, starting at 12 noon (CST), will be broadcast by the major networks and also televised.

Described in advance by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) as transcending party politics in importance, the chief executive's talk is expected to center chiefly on the situation in Greece and the Near East.

Vandenberg said, however, that the problem involved "may prove to be symbolic of a general policy which may have to be pursued around the world."

On Capitol Hill, the general belief was that Mr. Truman will recommend a loan of $125,000,000 for Greece and $150,000,000 for Turkey both as a means of bolstering their home economies and indirectly as a barrier against the westward surge of Communism.

Senator Jenner (R-Ind) demanded that the American people "be made acquainted with all the secret commitments with foreign nations which might cause us to lose the peace."

"If the American people are to be called upon to finance the world," he said in a statement, "They should be told frankly and honestly whether there were many other secret commitments made at Yalta, Tehran, at Cairo, or at any other place on the globe.

"If we are to give Greece $250,000,000 to save its government from Communism; if we are to finance the government of Turkey, or if, indeed, we are to establish a protectorate over the entire world, Congress certainly must know the facts and the people must know the real situation that confronts them."

Vandenberg, chairman of the foreign Senate relations committee and presiding officer of the Senate, was said by some of his colleagues to have raised this question: Should the United States help Greece oust Communist forces while denying similar aid to the anti-Communist Chinese national government of Chiang Kai-shek?

BUILDING FALLS, 4 MEN TRAPPED

Five - Story Cincinnati Structure Crumples; Owner Rescued

Cincinnati, March 11 (AP)—Hopes brightened late tonight that three of the four men trapped in the collapse of a five-story building would be reached alive as firemen stepped up efforts to clear away the huge pile of rubble.

Assistant Fire Chief Leo Kuhn said he crawled into a "tunnel" in the wreckage and talked to one of the buried men, Delmar Rudd, 19, who gave this report:

"I can move my arms a little but I don't think I'm hurt badly * * *

"Dad's somewhere near me but I haven't been able to get him to talk lately. I do hear him groaning, though. * * *

"I can still talk to Wally Peskin, he's somewhere near me."

"Dad" is Al Rudd, 45 years old, of nearby Covington, Ky.

In addition to the father and son and Peskin, 47-year-old storekeeper, a janitor, Fred Elsaesser, 75, also is buried.

All are employes of the Western Fixture and Bar Supply Co. which occupied the building.

There has been no word from Elsaesser, Kuhn said tonight.

Sam Ostrov, 42 owner of the firm, and Roy Bell, 38, another employe, were rescued late this afternoon.

During the day, rescue crews heard Peskin's voice coming from the wreckage but Kuhn said his feeble shouts had not been heard since six o'clock tonight.

Two power "pick-up" shovels and a derrick were put into service late today to speed removal of the 30-foot-high pile of rubble.

Kuhn tonight would not predict how long it would take rescuers to reach the men. He added, however, that he expected the search to continue through the night at least.

Woman At Armada Accused Of Beating Boarding Children

Armada, Mich., March 11 (AP)—Previously charged with beating children in a boarding house she then operated, a 40-year-old Armada woman now faces possible separation from her two foster daughters on the basis of further beating charges against her.

Probate Judge Joseph V. Trombly set Thursday for hearing a petition asking that two girls be taken away from Mrs. Dora Mathews, of Armada. The children are Ruby, 15, and Caroline Mathews, 12.

Neighbors told the prosecutor's office that beatings had continued after Mrs. Mathews surrendered her boarding house license to the state last October and after some boarding children had been taken from her home.

On the original cruelty charge last fall, Mrs. Mathews was bound over to circuit court and trial has not yet been held.

Price Of Gasoline Up Half A Cent In Detroit District

Detroit, March 11 (AP)—A half cent a gallon increase in the retail price of gasoline was announced today by Rankin Peck, executive director of the Detroit Gasoline Dealers Association.

Peck said the increase, effective Thursday, was due to increases of wholesale prices of crude oil.

The new price of major regular brands will be 21.6, as compared with the old price of 21.1, while major ethyl brands will be 23.6 as compared with the old price of 23.1.

TAX REDUCTION BATTLE REVIVED

Knutson Bill Calls For 20 Percent Slash In Income Levies

Washington, March 11 (AP)—The congressional tax cutting controversy broke out again today as Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) announced that the house ways and means committee will open hearings Thursday on his bill calling for a 20 per cent "across the board" slash.

Knutson said the hearings will close Friday and Rep. Forand (D-I) told reporters:

"The Republicans are using a RI) told reporters:

Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder was called as the first witness and is expected to support President Truman's position, given to congress in a January message. This is that taxes should not be cut now and any treasury surpluses should be used to begin payment of the $260,000,000,000 national debt.

Knutson's bill calls for a 20 per cent reduction in the levy on income of 45,000,000 taxpayers, with the relief retroactive to Jan. 1. It would reduce the tax load by about $3,500,000,000.

Rep. Engel (R-Mich) has complained that Knutson's measure would give the greatest aid to persons with large incomes.

Rep. Allen (R-Ill) clung to his prediction that the measure will be revised to give the largest amount of relief to persons in the small income brackets.

Allen proposed a compromise giving a 20 per cent cut to persons earning up to $2,500; 17 per cent between $2,500 and $5,000; 15 per cent $5,000 to $10,000, and 10 per cent for incomes above $10,000.

Support Is Sought For Refugee Agency

Washington, March 11 (AP) — Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Connally (D-Tex) teamed up today to win unanimous support from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for United States participation in the International Refugee Organization.

IRO is the "temporary service' agency set up by the United Nations to handle the job of feeding, clothing, sheltering and eventually finding permanent homes for more than 1,000,000 refugees and displaced persons left in European war zones.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) said the committee inserted two restrictions in the bill he and Connally sponsored but added these would not cause difficulty.

"We will bring this up in the Senate as soon as possible," Vandenberg told reporters after the unanimous committee action at a closed-door session.

SOLID FRONT OF 3 POWERS STOPS RUSSIA

MINISTERS TACKLE GERMAN TREATY, GET NOWHERE

BY WES GALLAGHER

Moscow, March 11 (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall won his first diplomatic triumph in the foreign ministers council tonight when the United States, Great Britain and France put up a solid front and blocked a Russian proposal to place the complex China question on the agenda.

A conference official said the three western representatives, opposing a suggestion by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, insisted that China must be present if Chinese affairs were discussed in the council, and Molotov finally withdrew his proposal.

The four foreign ministers then split wide open when they tackled the first and least controversial problem of Germany, the question of demilitarization, informants disclosed.

Bevin Cuts Loose

Molotov hurled a broadside of accusations that the western nations had failed to demilitarize their occupation zones, and were keeping German troops in military formations, contrary to the Potsdam agreement.

Repeating many accusations which have appeared in the Russian press during the last few months, Molotov asserted that "except in obvious cases the elimination of the war potential in the west has hardly started."

Ernest Bevin, British foreign secretary, answered Molotov bluntly that the charges were "unjustified," and said they reminded him of "an old lady watching a parade in which one man was out of step and then observed they are all out of step except Johnnie."

Bevin then let loose a diplomatic bombshell of his own, saying that while the ministers were on the subject of demilitarization "it might be useful" to know the number of prisoners of war held outside Germany," the informant said.

Russia never has revealed how many prisoners of war she is holding in her homeland. All previous questions on this subject have been rebuffed.

China Proposal Blocked

After handing the Russian minister his initial defeat on the China question, the western representatives then blocked, at least for the time being, another Soviet proposal that the "big four" ministers discuss China informally and issue a communique on the subject.

Molotov insisted that such a communique should be put out since the question was of such "great importance to public opinion."

Marshall issued a formal statement saying that he would be "pleased" to exchange information with Molotov and Bevin on the subject of China, and Bevin indicated that his country was willing to do likewise.

UTILITIES TIEUP BILLS APPROVED

House And Senate Pass Similar Measures On Strike Stoppages

Lansing, March 11 (AP)—The Christman bill, outlawing interruptons of electric, gas, water or other public utility services passed the house and was sent to the senate on a 70 to 17 vote today.

The senate, however, had passed and sent to the house a similar measure. The senate bill is still in the house judiciary commttee, and observers were wondering if an impasse was developing. They said the senate judiciary committee might hold the house bill until the house committee reported out the senate bill, while the house committee did the same thing with the senate measure.

The house bill, introduced by Rep. Lewis G. Christman, Ann Arbor Republican, is admittedly aimed at preventing stoppages of public utilities during strikes. However, in today's session a new rider was attached declaring the bill was not intended to prevent legal strikes in the utilities.

Today's addition was sponsored by Christman who 'yesterday fought successfully to remove a similar rider attached to the judiciary committee. He did not explain his about face.

Rep. Henry T. Gage, Detroit Republican, keynoted the opposition to the bill with the statement that it "does not solve the labor problem—it only punishes."

"Labor is not a criminal problem," said the young attorney. "This measure is purely punitive and it does not attack the cause but the effect."

Penalty For Minors

By an 82-5 vote the house passed a bill which would permit a joint legislative committee alone to choose a new site for the Boy's Vocation School now located in Lansing.

At the last session, the legislature approved the purchase of a site for $200,000, but determined that the juvenile institute commission should make recommendations to the committee.

Rep. Robert Montgomery, Lansing Republican who heads the joint committee, said the commission was not co-operating since the committee turned down a site north of Ann Arbor.

A bill forbidding minors from representing themselves as 21 to be served liquor was passed in the house 83-3.

For the third time, the senate stalled a bill creating county school districts in all counties of more than 15,000 population, and permitting smaller counties to band together in a joint district by a vote of the people.

The bill would convert the office of county school commissioner into a county superintendent of schools appointed by a five-member county school board elected by officials of the existing school districts. The state would pay the superintendent's salaries on a schedule ranging from $4,000 to $7,000.

Senator Elmer R. Porter, Blissfield Republican, charged the latter provision would place all superintendents under state civil service.

The sponsor, Senator Don Vanderwerp, Fremont Republican, denied arguments that the bill would accelerate school district consolidations and objected to proposals for attaching a referendum. He said the system should be state-wide.

The senate defeated, 13 to 15, a bill to prescribe minimum salaries for prosecuting attorneys.

It passed after lengthy debate a measure requiring parents involved in divorce proceedings to pay $1 a month to the friend of the court to defray expenses of his office, or to the county clerk in event there is no friend of the court.

Two Pickets Shot

McNear had defied 13 railroad Brotherhoods since 1941 in one of the longest and bloodiest labor disputes in the nation. The 239 mile line, which normally handles transcontinental freight shipments by-passing Chicago, has been crippled by a continuous strike for the last 17 months. The dispute has been marked by fatal shootings, fires and long litigation. Two pickets were shot to death at Gridley, Ill., in February, 1946.

State's Attorney Roy Hull said he would question officials of the striking railroad Brotherhoods and "anyone else who might throw light" on the slaying.

W. C. Keiser of Topeka, Kan., spokesman for the 13 Brotherhoods, said he was "shocked" by the slaying.

Marquette KC's To Meet VFW's Friday

Thoroughly rested after a week's lay-off, the Escanaba VFW basketball team will take on the strong Marquette K. C. outfit next Friday night at the junior high gym.

The K. C.'s beat the VFW's in their first meeting—but that was the old VFW's, not the new. The Vets received, somewhere along the line this season, a shot of benzedrine which changed them from a plodding team into an aggregation to be reckoned with.

Taken the last time out, in the semi-finals of the Escanaba open basketball tournament, by Hermansville, who went on to race second to the Tom Swift team for the championship, the VFW's swear they are in better shape than ever.

Military Compound In Jerusalem Shot Up By Armed Band

Jerusalem, Wednesday, March 12 (AP)—Two British soldiers were killed and eight were injured early today when an armed band attacked a military compound in Jerusalem, heavily damaging the buildings with mortar and machinegun fire.

First intimation of the attack was a series of heavy explosions which were heard throughout the city at 4:18 a. m. (8:18 PCS Tuesday). The blasts were quickly followed by the wailing of alarm sirens as British troops rushed to the trouble zone, which was brightly illuminated by flares.

An official announcement identified the target of the attack as a former Syrian orphanage, recently used as a military depot, situated in the British security zone.

Filipinos Go After American Dollars, Vote Trade To U. S.

Manila, Wednesday, March 12. (AP)—Filipinos voted by an overwhelming margin yesterday to sacrifice some economic independence for the next 27 years in return for millions of American rehabilitation dollars.

Supporting President Manuel Roxas, at whom a would-be assassin threw a hand grenade as the campaign ended, they approved by a margin of about three to one a constitutional amendment to give the United States equal trading rights until 1974.

But opponents saw in the heavy stay-away vote a form of "silent rebuke." Only an estimated 40 per cent of 3,000,000 persons registered voted, with such men as former President Sergio Osmena abstaining. A Roxas administration follower observed, however, that voter apathy is "always evident in a landslide."

DAYLIGHT SAVER TIME UP AGAIN

Shift Of Clocks Proves Boon To Some, Pain In Neck For Others

BY JOE HALL

New York, March 11. (AP)—Airlines, radio networks and railroads won't like to be reminded of it, but spring's just around the corner and tripping in with the new season will be that boon to city recreation seekers but pain-in-the-neck to some others—daylight saving.

The clock-advancing date this year is Sunday, April 27, so that businesses which conduct operations across all or part of the country still have time to figure out new schedules and time-tables.

Decisions have not been made in all states as yet, but a survey today indicated the daylight saving situation in the country this year would be much the same as last.

The northeastern section of the country favors the change wholeheartedly, but it is much less popular in the south, midwest and far west.

Wherever rural votes have an important voice in state legislatures, daylight saving in most cases is doomed. Farmers long have led the opposition to it, insisting the time change requires them to get up in the dark in the summer to get the milking done. They assert they get enough of before-dawn chores in winter.

Six-Engine B-36 Carries 278,000 Pounds Test Load

Washington, March 11. (AP)—The Army Air Forces disclosed today that its six-engine B-36 bomber has carried the heaviest load ever lifted from the earth by an airplane, 278,000 pounds.

This is virtually double the weight of the B-29 Superfortress.

The 278,000 pound lift by the Consolidated-Vultee B-36 was the fifth of a series of tests with heavy loads, starting at 200,000 pounds. The figure represents the weight of the airplane, plus fuel and other material.

The AAF has described the B-36 as capable of carrying 36 tons of bombs, although not at its normally effective range of 10,000 miles.

Ambassador Novikov Is Recalled To Russia

Washington, March 11 (AP)—Russian Ambassador Nikolai V. Novikov has been recalled to Moscow for consultations and will fly from New York Thursday.

Notice of the trip was delivered to the state department yesterday in a note from the embassy.

No details were given in the communication beyond the fact that the journey is for consultations and that the embassy will be left in charge of Kin Tsarap, charge d'affaires, during Novikov's absence.

Premier To Resign Today In Belgium

Brussels, March 11 (AP)—Belgian Premiere Camille Huysmans, Socialist, will present his government's resignation to Prince Regent Charles tomorrow, it was announced tonight.

The premier's decision to terminate his left-wing coalition government came after a special cabinet meeting at which four Communist ministers resigned to protest government increases in coal and steel price ceilings.

MEXICO GETS WARSHIPS

Mexico City, March 11 (AP)—The Navy department reported today it would acquire 14 warships from the United States during the year—eight destroyers, two torpedo boats, two transports, and two cruisers.

Men's Teacher Club Gives Views To Board

To present their views upon the tangled problem of teachers' salaries and and the financing thereof, and to clarify a vague and unsatisfactory situation by bringing about a meeting of minds, 21 members of the Men's Teacher club met with the Escanaba board of education at the junior high school building last night, and presented a letter containing a suggested salary schedule with a $2400 minimum and a $4200 maximum for men teachers.

The letter pointed out that the suggested increase partially compensates for the rising costs of living, that it is in line with increases adopted by other schools throughout the country, and that it also recognizes a growing realization throughout the United States that teachers, under-paid and ill-considered, are turning from the profession in growing numbers.

Speaking for the school board in the discussion which followed, Superintendent John Lemmer emphasized the uncertainty of the monetary situation, with the state legislature now discussing measures which will influence the amount of money Escanaba schools will receive from the state. He stated that the Escanaba school board was well aware of the necessity and the desirabiilty of increasing teachers' salaries, and had ear-marked for teachers salaries 75% of whatever increase in state aid Escanaba obtained.

The board, endorsing Mr. Lemmer's statements, formally voted to accept the letter of the Men's Teacher Club and instructed Superintendent Lemmer to continue to sit with representatives of the teachers in close cooperation upon this problem.

Among other items of business brought before the board last night were: a boiler inspection report by the Hartford Insurance company; a report upon the distribution of the fire insurance carried by the school system; a request for the use of the athletic field during the Hiawathaland Fetsival in July; an invitation from Northern State Teachers college to send a group of Home Economic teachers and students on a field trip to a demonstration at Marquette; payment of tuition by Cornell and Bark River townships; discussion of tentative teacher assignments; discussion of the hiring of new teachers.

Jewell Gives Talk To Junior Chamber

At a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the Odd Fellows' hall last night, the possibility of affiliation with the state and national Junior Chamber of Commerce was presented by Dudley Jewell, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, and last night's guest speaker.

Affiliation with the state and national organization, Mr. Jewell said, would give the local Junior Chamber of Commerce the benefit of the central organization's advice and guidance.

Rules of the national organization, however, limit active membership to men under 35. All present members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce over that age would go into the Exhausted Roosters' Club, upon an inactive status, without voting privileges or the right to hold office.

Question and discussion followed his speech.

In addition, the meeting heard reports upon the results of the membership drive; Don Guindon, captain of Team No. 1, reporting 31 new members, and Jerry Jerow, captain of Team No. 2, reporting 19.

Tom Quinn, acting chairman of the Tourist Lodge committee, reported upon the progress of plans for the erection of a tourist lodge this summer near the outskirts of the city.

Reports were also heard from John Bolger, chairman of the Tourist Facility committee also reported to the meeting upon a survey made of lodging and other tourist accommodations, as well as tours planned, and projected promotion.

The meeting also received a letter from the C&NW officials stating an intention of redecorating the local C&NW depot this summer.

Lunch was served after the meeting.

In 1905 the United States drilled new oil wells at the rate of 45 daily. In 1946 a new oil well was started every 23 minutes on the average.

Dialogue Is Toned Down For O'Neill's Drama In Detroit

Detroit, March 11 (AP)—The curtain was to go up tonight on a toned down version of Eugene O'Neill's new Play, "A Moon For The Misbegotten."

The play drew police criticism at its Monday night opening because of alleged "dirty and risque" dialogue.

Inspector Charles Snyder ordered it closed but rescinded his directive after a conference with sponsors of the drama.

He said they have agreed to edit some of the more objectionable lines and that he is "entirely satisfied" with the resultant tone of the play.

Starring James Dunn, the Guild production came to Detroit after runs in Columbus, O., Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

Theater Guild spokesmen said they encountered no censor troubles in any of these cities, although recalling some unofficial criticism in Pittsburgh on the same score.

The O'Neill drama has a Connecticut farm setting and deals with a father, his Amazon daughter and a drunken landlord.

POPE HOPEFUL FOR ENDURING WORLD PEACE

tinued, his efforts are directed chiefly toward vindicating the freedom of the Holy See, of bishops and of Catholic associations of Christian charity and indeed of all Catholics throughout the the world, to come to the assistance of those in need, to provide them with food and clothing, to arrange for the homeless, wandering millions and orderly emigration to some country where with proper safeguards to their religious and social needs they may begin anew the life of an honorable Christian family, that essentially vital cell of human societty.

No Modernized Christianity

The Pope was asked to comment upon his efforts to make the church responsive to the increasingly complex character of modern civilization.

If opposition between the church and the modern world is becoming more and more stressed in certain quarters, he continud, it is because there are leaders and groups in power today who aim deliberately at giving the modern world a character and policy of conduct that are anti-Christian, even anti-God. The world has already tasted the bitter fruit of power divorced from belief in God and respect for his law. Take away belief in God, and what is there to support and concept of law or to insure the inviolability of covenants freely accepted?

Hence, the Pope said, he deemed it a most solemn duty of his office to hinder in season and out of season any loosening of the bonds that unite human civilizition with the fundamental principles of Christianity.

The correspondents remarked that the world was gravely concerned over the threat to civilization implicit in the uninhibited use of highly destructive weapons developed recently, and asked for his comment upon the ethical conditions involved in the use of such weapons.

In replying, the pontiff pointed out that the question touched only one element of a general problem.

The development of modern weapons of war is bound to go forward with the constant development being made in the technical field, he said, and just as surely is bound also to lead to total war—that is, a war in which the distinction between combatants and non-combatants is very quickly robbed of all meaning. What this promised to the civilized world has been amply and sadly demonstrated in the recent war.

Most certainly herein, he said, is found an added argument, if such were needed, to persuade the leaders of nations that in conscience they are obliged to reach agreements that will insure to the world a peace for which they in honor may assume responsibility and all peoples may find bearable, even though those agreements mean the curtailing to some degree of their several sovereign rights.

Senators Conclude AYD At Wayne Is Communist Front

Lansing, March 11 (AP)—A State Senate Committee investigating Communism in Michigan recommended tonight that the Michigan Youth for Democracy chapter at Wayne University be banned from the campus.

The recommendation was given to newspapermen by two committee members: Sen. Matthew F. Callahan, Detroit Republican, and Sen. Colin L. Smith, Big Rapids Republican, after the group's first hearing.

The two committee members said at the conclusion that they believed they had produced evidence showing the AYD was a "Communist front" organization.

Previously, questioning Dr. David D. Henry, president of Wayne, Sen. Callahan asked:

"It has been reported to us this is a Communist organization and the governor of this state has said it was. Will you assure this committee that you will suspend it?"

Dr. Henry replied, "Not unless it violates university regulations."

Callahan said, "Despite the fact it is a Communist organization?"

Dr. Henry replied, "I don't believe the Wayne chapter is. I find no evidence of subversive activity or political activity on behalf of the Communist party."

Callahan said at one point, "I think the attorney general can proceed against this outfit under the criminal syndicalist law and put it out of business."

Later he and Smith said the committee was not ready to act.

Marshall presided over today's meeting—the second in the Moscow conference to decide the future of Germany and Austria.

Switching the discussion away from China, the United States diplomat reiterated his request of yesterday that the question of limiting occupation troops in Europe be placed on the agenda.

Molotov, who asked yesterday for 24 hours to consider the proposal, requested still further delay, and Marshall ruled the matter "held in suspense," the informant said.

Delta Relief Agency Now Distributes Surplus Spuds

Local surplus potatoes on which the federal government had issued loans to growers under its subsidy program are now in part being distributed for use in school hot lunch programs, for relief clients, and for use in institutions.

A. M. Gilbert, director of the Delta county social welfare commission, yesterday said that between 4,000 and 5,000 bushels of the surplus potatoes will be distributed to schools for their hot lunch programs, to the infirmary in Delta county, to Pinecrest sanatorium at Powerss, and to all recipients of any form of relief under the social welfare program. This includes general relief clients, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind and old age assistance cases.

Approximately 1,000 bushels of the surplus spuds have already been distributed to welfare clients in the city of Escanaba.

The potatoes are all No. 1 graded and inspected, and will go to approximately 2,300 persons in all welfare classifications. In addition there are 14 schools that will get potatoes, and the two institutions previouly named.

Gilbert said the farmer brings the potatoes to the county infirmary, where they are held in a room until distribution is made. Because the potatoes are those described as surplus by the federal government, there is no cost charged for them to the county social welfare department. Gilbert said he understood that Dickinson, Gogebic and Houghton counties also are undertaking similar surplus potato distribution programs.

The quantity of potatoes each family receives is limited acording to the size of the family. Large families receive not more than a two-month supply, but another delivery will be made in May. The smaller family receives a three-month supply of spuds and for them another distribution will be made in June. The average amount distributed is about 100 pounds per family.

HOTEL OWNER DIES

Houghton — William Sigfred Johnson, 75 years old, proprietor of the Cloverland hotel, who was engaged in the cafe and restaurant business in Houghton for the last 32 years, passed away at 9:10 this morning in St. Joseph's hospital where he had been a patient for the past week. The deceased had been in failing health since three years ago, when he underwent an operation.

Born in Stockholm, Sweden, Mr. Johnson came to the United States when he was 17 years old, first locating in Newberry, where he started a career as a cook in lumber camps. After a short time in Minnesota, he came to Keweenaw Bay 43 years ago, where he and Mrs. Johnson operated the Mass Mining company boarding house for 11 years.

Escanaba, Nahma Townships Reach Red Cross Quotas

Escanaba and Nahma townships have reached their quotas in the 1947 Red Cross fund campaign, Francis T. Rooney, general township chairman, announced yesterday. Escanaba township's goal was $92.75 and Nahma township's, $410.50.

The Escanaba township drive was in charge of Mrs. Edward Marenger, who was assisted by Rosella Lancour, Mrs. Patrick Miron, Mrs. Margaret Srock, Edmund J. Beauchamp, Frank Barron, Herman Fillion and Henry Hughes.

Rudy Jehn was chairman of the Nahma township campaign and his co-workers were Leo Pintal, Wilfred Willette, Lloyd Camps, Albert Mercier, William Henderson, David Phalen, Harry DeRosier and Edward Williams.

Anyone in either township, who was not contacted, and who wishes to become a member of the Red Cross, is asked to leave his contribution with the chairman.

It is estimated that during World War II a soldier made an average of eight trips within the United States before going overseas.

Marquis James tells of "ONE OF METROPOLITAN'S GREATEST YEARS—1946"

In line with its long-established "Open Book" policy, Metropolitan recently asked Marquis James, noted historian and a Metropolitan policyholder, to write the Company's Annual Report to Policyholders for 1946.

Mr. James was unusually well equipped to do this because he had just finished, at the request of the Company, a three-year study of Metropolitan's operations from the time it was founded. The results of this study have been published by the Viking Press under the title of "The Metropolitan Life, A Study in Business Growth," on sale at any bookstore.

In Mr. James' report of the Company's operations for 1946, he tells a story of continued progress in service to policyholders. He points out——that payments to policyholders and their beneficiaries last year exceeded $630,000,000.

—that 2,400,000 people bought new Metropolitan policies in 1946.

—that the amount of new insurance purchased in 1946 topped anything in Metropolitan's 79 years in business.

—that the gain in insurance in force set a new high record.

—that the Company had one of the lowest death rates in its history.

—that, despite a trend toward increased costs caused primarily by a continued decline in interest rates earned, the Company has found it possible to continue dividends on Ordinary and Industrial policies during the coming year at the same rates as during 1946.

Mr. James' report is much more than a compilation of statistics. Among other things, he discusses the social value of Metropolitan's investments. For example, he characterizes Metropolitan's housing program as a——"vivid demonstration of how private enterprise works for the public good."

Whether or not you are a Metropolitan policyholder, you will find the Annual Report to Policyholders well worth reading. To get your free copy, just fill in and mail the coupon below.

IT IS a privilege and a pleasure to pay tribute today to the Girl Scouts on their 35th anniversary. The Girl Scouts are always so young, fresh and up-to-date that we somehow get the impression that Girl Scouting is brand new. We are prone to forget that the movement is 35 years old and that generations of girls have grown up under its influence.

A great deal has happened in this troubled world since 1912, and one of the good things has been the quiet, steady growth of an organization devoted to helping girls become better citizens. In spite of wars, depressions and uncertainties, the Girl Scouts have grown steadily and today there are more than a million Girl Scouts in 8,300 communities.

The record of the Girl Scouts is one of progress. From its beginning in 1912 to the present day, The Girl Scout organization has been in step with the times. Today the Girl Scouts are forming and keeping friendships with girls of their own ages on every continent. It may be that these youngsters are driving straight at the heart of the problem of building a better world when they send their letters and their gifts to sister Guides and Scouts overseas.

The Girl Scouts comprise an organization where differences of creed, race, nationality or politics are subjects of reciprocal interest and respect instead of dispute. This is one of the basic tenets of the movement and full credit must go to the adult volunteers in Girl Scouting for maintaining this atitude. It has become an organization of people—not of beliefs, dogmas or nationalities.

Thanks to the girls of America, who knew what they wanted and were determined to get it, Girl Scouting is the kind of success story that all of us like to read.

Happy Birthday, Girl Scouts—and may there be many more of them in the years ahead.

Back Up For A Fresh Start

THE hope that professional baseball would be inaugurated in the Upper Peninsula this year has been quashed by the announcement that the National Association of Professional Leagues will not accept additional entries in 1947.

The National Association, however, has promised to accept an Upper Peninsula league in 1948, provided that the proposed league completes its preliminary work and files its applications early enough.

Obviously then, the course to follow is to go forward with definite plans to organize the league as soon as possible, ready to start in 1948. The time intervening can well be used to "sell" professional baseball to the various communities in the Upper Peninsula and to encourage them to prepare the physical properties that are necessary in the way of parks, enclosures, bleachers, etc.

Baseball, the national game, can never reach its rightful place in Upper Peninsula sports on a strictly amateur or semi-pro basis. It requires the kind of organization and the kind of baseball that a professional league would bring to the area.

Hundreds of cities throughout the United States, cities that are in many instances much smaller than Escanaba, are operating successfully in organized baseball. We can do it, too, if we collectively make up our minds that we want organized baseball and are willing to make the effort that it would entail. The same is true of other cities of the area, such as Marquette, Iron Mountain, Marinette—yes, and even the cities of smaller population, including Munising and Manistique.

14-Months Strike

THE futility of a labor strike that extends over a period of 14 months is exemplified by the final settlement of the bitter labor dispute at the J. I. Case company plant in Racine, Wisconsin.

Although dissatisfied with the terms of the settlement, the UAW-CIO announced that it is satisfied "that the union has proved its ability to stay intact as an organization and has won its fight for survival as an institution within the Case plant."

Thus, from these words it is obvious that the union feels that it has won a victory even though the 3,500 workers took a financial beating through 14 months of idleness.

Substantially the same contract that was offered to the workers last October forms the basis for the ultimate settlement of the Case strike. The last five months of the strike, at least, were utterly futile from the workers' standpoint.

Greece Needs Aid

PRESIDENT TRUMAN will address a joint session of Congress today on the subject of American aid to Greece and Turkey, both of which are threatened with economic collapse and to be swallowed by Russian Communism.

The situation in Greece is particularly acute, so much so, in fact, that Greece has issued a frantic appeal for American help immediately, before it is too late. Greece requires food and an economic prop, but she needs even more. She must have arms to maintain peace and to thrust off Communist-trained guerillas who are taking advantage of Greece's economic condition in an effort to seize control.

Our choice is simply whether or not we are content to let Greece fall to Communism and Russian domination. If we do nothing now, the pattern for the future of Greece is clear. The anti-Communistic government will surely fall, but the vacuum will be brief. It will be quickly filled with Red-trained troops who will take over the reins of government by force and our last chance to keep the vestige of democracy alive in Greece will have been lost.

The next step will be Turkey and she, too, will quickly embrace the Red horde—not by choice but by necessity.

We who spent so much of our national treasures to fight oppression in Europe have little choice now but to protect those costly pains, by helping those who are crying so desperately for our aid.

THE INDUSTRIAL FUND
(Ironwood Globe)

The Ironwood Chamber of Commerce Industrial committee merits the support of the business and professional members of the community in its undertaking to raise $9,000 for the Chamber's industrial fund.

This sum, little more than half of what was raised in 1946, is needed to complete the job started last year when the Chamber set out to provide a building to house a new industry. The goal of a new industry for Ironwood has been attained and indications are that when production is in full swing the plant will employ some 200 persons and will have an annual payroll of $250,000 or more.

In order to meet obligations incurred in converting two former school buildings, the Chamber of Commerce needs an additional $9,000. This is explained by the fact that the conversion project was started during a period of sharply rising material costs and changes which could not be foreseen when the work was begun. The fact remains, however ,that the industry now getting under way will be twice as large as the one which was in prospect when the industrial fund was started last year. The money contributed to the fund also is invested in an excellent factory building, a tangible asset, rather than being expended in a training program as was first contemplated.

These are factors to be considered by contributors and prospective contributors to the fund. Also to be kept in mind is that since "nothing succeeds like success," it should henceforth be easier to attract additional new industries to Ironwood and other range communities. It has been the experience of other communities that once a few small industries become established in a town, other plants are attracted. The results are beneficial both to the communities and to the industries.

UNFAIR TO MICHIGAN
(Detroit News)

We think the Legislature ought to enact Senator Hittle's bill declaring Michigan citizen's incomes to be community property of husband and wife — even though, for reasons we do not profess to understand, there is doubt of the Constitutional power of a state thus to favor its own income taxpayers.

In nine states, which inherited or were influenced by the Roman law, via the colonial Spaniards, community property is the rule. In these states a husband and wife with a $5,000 income, wholly earned by the husband, may divide this for tax purposes into two $2,500 incomes. They thus escape the higher surtax brackets and pay less than a similarly situated couple in any of the other 39 states.

It is plain that the community property rule ought to apply equally either to all states or to none. Preferably, it should apply to none, we would say, because the income tax law never intended thus generously to favor married people over single people.

However, Senator Hittle's proposal to claim the privileges for Michigan married couples would help, whether the courts accepted it or not, to focus attention on the national inequity and perhaps prompt Congress to do something. It is for that reason we advocate its enactment.

IT ALL DEPENDS ON US
(The Columbus Dispatch)

Our own peace and prosperity we know depend entirely upon ourselves. And the peace and prosperity of the world, or that part of it which remains free to return to health, likewise depends largely on how well and how soon our congress aids the return of the United States to its natural state of economic health and political strength.

Hollywood: A large concern, in a magazine advertisement, stated: "There are a number of people who are susceptible to colds." I wrote to them and told them that the word "number" is always singular and takes a singular verb, as: "There is a number of people who is susceptible to colds." But they insist that their sentence was correct.—Dr. Von.

Answer: Sorry, but the sentence is correct as it ran. I know of no authority which holds that the noun "number" is always singular. The rule is: When "number" is used collectively, it takes a singular verb. When it is used distributively, it takes a plural verb.

Now, let us see just what that means. Here are two sentences: In the first, "number" is collective; in the second, it is distributive:

1. The number of students is increasing.

2. A number of students are absent.

In the first sentence "the number of students" emphasizes the number, rather than the students themselves. The sentence states that the enrollment is increasing. "The number of students," then, is collective since it embraces all the students without exception—it considers them as a single unit.

In the second sentence, "a number of students" expresses the idea of "some of the students." "Number," then, is distributive, since it considers the absent students as so many individuals. It does not name them as a unit or group; it is an indefinite statement to the effect that some (perhaps a few, perhaps many) of the students are absent.

Here is a simple key to the usage: Leave out "a number of." If the sentence makes sense, the verb should be plural.

Example: ". . . students is increasing" doesn't make sense. "The number of students is (singular) increasing" is correct.

". . . students are absent." This makes sense. "A number of students are (plural) absent" is correct.

Therefore: "There are (a number of) people who are susceptible to colds" clearly is the correct sentence.

Washington—Because of an unfortunate accident of timing, the confirmation of Gordon Clapp to be chairman of the Tennessee Valley authority has been treated as a kind of side show while the David Lilienthal row holds the interest in the main tent.

If the Clapp appointment had not come up until the smoke of the Lilienthal controversy cleared away, then it would have been seen in its true colors. In any objective light, it must be seen as the advancement of a loyal and capable public servant.

Clapp has been with the TVA since its inception in 1933. Since 1939 he has been general manager. The record established by TVA during the war is essentially Clapp's record.

Some members of the Senate have come to realize the importance of considering the Clapp appointment on its own merits. Senator Ralph Flanders of Vermont, one of the new Republicans in Congress, is one of these.

Two weeks ago Flanders announced his intention of voting against Lilienthal. The Vermont Senator is a friend and admirer of Arthur E. Morgan, former TVA chairman who clashed with Lilienthal over policy and prerogatives some years ago. But Flanders will vote for Clapp on the basis of his record with TVA.

A vote against Clapp is in reality a vote against TVA. That was more or less clear in the statements of Republicans and Democrats on the Senate Public Works committee, who voted 7 to 5 against his confirmation. Several of the opponents, in explaining their stand, said that while Clapp had a good record, they were opposed to anyone in favor of public power. This is a little tough on a man named to administer a public authority created by Act of Congress, one function of which is to develop power.

If the Clapp appointment had not been under the Lilienthal shadow, it would undoubtedly have gone through in routine fashion. Senator McKellar could have been counted on for his red dervish dance, but that would have been routine, too. Thanks to anti-Lilienthal propaganda, directed in part at least against TVA, Clapp suffered by indirection.

The Communist smear is ridiculous on the face of it. TVA is an answer to Communism. It is a demonstration of what government and private enterprise can do when they work together.

This is the overwhelming impression carried away by hundreds of foreigners, particularly visitors from France and other European countries, who have seen TVA at first hand. They have seen that government can be a partner without producing regimentation. The farmers of the Tennessee Valley are not told what to plant or when to plant it.

As for certain sensitive and searching young people caught for a time by the glitter of Communism's easy answers, they, too, are proof of how TVA works against COMMUNISM. Henry Hart and Muriel Williams came of age durnig the uncertain years of the depression. They saw democracy at work in the TVA and they left the dead end of the Communist party.

The twitter about Communism seems so foolish and irrelevant when it is put alongside Clapp's record as general manager in charge of operations. Judged by any standard, TVA's record of construction just before and during the war is an impressive one.

Dam after dam went up. TVA's output was stepped up again and again to build thousands of bombers and to provide prodigious amounts of power for the atomic energy plant at Oak Ridge. Hundreds of contracts were signed and not once was there a single interruption due to labor trouble.

Those who are against TVA and who will therefore vote against Clapp's confirmation conveniently look around one very large fact. Without the power of TVA, the war effort would have been seriously crippled. Even if you are opposed to government partnership in developing a neglected area, it's hard to explain that fact away.

The campaign against TVA has never ceased. Lately it has seemed to grow in volume, indicating powerful backing from interests that would like to kill this experiment in government. One way to do that, of course, would be to defeat Clapp, who is so obviously fitted in every way to take over the top policy-making position.

The confirmation of Gordon Clapp is an important issue, of and by itself. Those who must pass on it should consider it on merit and not as a side show to any other controversy.

Good Morning!

WINTER VISITORS —With the approach of spring many people look for the first robin, and the majority of people believe that as warm weather approaches we will have more birds come back from the southland. This is true. Yet few people realize than as spring approaches we also lose some birds who spend the winter here—and then return to their far-north homeland.

Among these is the Redpoll, of which we will hear more later from Gene Hesterberg, Escanaba, who is in charge of a deer yard management study for the game division of the conservation department. Gene is a likeable young chap with a broad grin and an enthusiastic interest in his work. Like so many of the younger men in the conservation department these days, he is a war veteran who is finding a postwar career in public service.

But to get on with our topic, which is the Redpoll, let's have Gene take up the story from here.

* * *

BREEDS IN ARCTIC —'Last week, while snowshoeing through a big tamarack and spruce swamp near the Bob's Creek deeryard, a large flock of common Redpoll flew in and among the tamarack just ahead of me," says Gene. "The Redpoll, a little smaller than the English sparrow, is a bird commonly seen in flocks during the winter, feeding in the treetops. Occasionally it frequents open fields in search of weed seeds still exposed above the snow.

"Since this bird was entirely a stranger to me, it seemed interesting to learn something more about it. The common Redpoll breeds in the Arctic regions, and migrates south from the bleak wastes of the Arctic country's winter. A winter visitant of the Upper Peninsula, they usually arrive in November or December, and move north with warm weather, as the spring break-up approaches. Redpolls are seldom seen in southern Michigan."

* * *

FEEDING HABITS— "I was able to get quite close to my first flock of Redpolls; there were about thirty or forty in this bunch, and they set up a continuous twitter, their call being similar to the goldfinch or wild canary. When a short distance away, their black chins and red caps were easily seen. A few birds flew into the tamarack beside me, and the pink-breasted males could then be distinguished from the plain-breasted females, and the young of the year.

"Without noticeable cause for alarm, part of the flock flared up and out of the swamp and the rest followed in undulating flight. The entire flock made a great semicircle and returned to the swamp barely a hundred yards away. As well as I could see they paid no heed to what had startled them, (possibly only a gust of wind) for in the distant tamarack they again seemed busy feeding.

"Apparently the principal foods of the Redpoll are seeds of birch, alder and some of the common grasses and weeds. In this instance, I thought they were feeding on tamarack buds. On investigation, there were occasional tiny white cocoons of a forest insect on the tamarack twigs; they may have been feeding on these insects. At any rate, they were vigorously working over this part of the swamp in search of food."

GRAVEL FOR GRIT—"Some say these birds are common in open fields. This is doubtless true, but I have seen them on the ground only once. A short distance east of Cornell on county road No. 426, I observed a flock of about twenty-five Redpolls. Some were actively seeking food in a group of small tamarack, near the road, while others busied themselves at picking up small bits of gravel where Andy Rappette's snow plow had scraped clear a small bare place. No seeds or grain were found where these birds had fed, so it was assumed that they were replenishing their grit supply.

"As to economic status, Redpolls are beneficial winter birds. Since they occur here in flocks, their presence should be welcomed by the farmer, and by the woodsman. Though I have only witnessed their feeding habits in the swamps, it is apparent that flocks of these seedeaters could help reduce a number of weeds on which they may feed. Should they attack forest insects, as they undoubtedly do, their importance would be doubled," Gene concludes.

* * *

THE ARCTIC OWL—So much for the Redpoll.

There is another bird which occasionally winters in the Upper Peninsula and in other northern states only periodically, in this way differing from the Redpoll. It is the snow owl or Arctic owl, which for reasons not yet fully determined leaves its far-north home about every fourth or fifth year and migrates southward in the wintertime. When spring comes it departs again for a summer in the Arctic regions.

The reason for the occasional visits of the Arctic owl is believed to be the periodic migrations of the lemming, on which the owl feeds in the Arctic. When the lemming migrates the owl must then search elsewhere for food, and turns southward through Canada and into the northern United States.

Strangely, there were no reports of Arctic owls seen in Delta county this winter—but hundreds were seen during the winter of 1946-47. Apparently the lemming is back in the Arctic again.

UNAFRAID —Probably because the Arctic owl seldom if ever sees a human being in its natural habitat, it shows a foolish lack of fear of man when it migrates to Michigan. The large white bird will alight close to men broad daylight on poles or steeple tops, easy game for the man with a gun.

In Delta county many of these large owls have been killed and stuffed, now stand as ornaments in taverns, in stores and homes. The owls arrive this far south in late fall, and leave late in the spring. Since they were not reported seen here this winter they are not expected back for another three or four years.

Q. My brother was recently convicted of desertion. May I continue in force his National Service Life Insurance if I pay premiums?

A. No, the National Service Life Insurance of a serviceman who deserts may not be kept in force.

Q. Are icebergs formed from salt water?

A. No. Icebergs are really chunks that have been broken off from glaciers which are formed on land from the accumulation of fresh water in cold regions where it is not warm enough in the summer for all the snow to thaw.

Q. What group of islands is known as "the land of storms?"

A. Tierra del Fuego, a group of islands at the southern point of South America. It is separated from the mainland by the Straits of Magellan. Very few ships have ever passed it without noticing the forked lightning playing on its cliffs and the rolling of heavy thunder.

Q. What is the epic poem of Spain?

A. "Poema del Cid," or the story of the Cid. It consists of 3,000 lines, describing the manners and customs of the 11th century, while at the same time celebrating the achievements of the Cid, the most romantic hero of Spanish tradition. The author is unknown.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Washington. —The problem of Greece boils down to the following alternatives:

1. Either we throw good money after bad and let the British continue to bungle Greece nearer the brink of civil war and

2. Or we use our influence to have the United Nations, with its world bank, stabilization fund, and world police force put Greece back on its feet.

3. Or we wipe our hands of Greece altogether, in which case Greece goes Russian-Communist.

Since even the Republican Isolationists are dead opposed to a Soviet- chaos. dominated Greece bottling up the eastern end of the Mediterranean with its Arabian oil now used by the U. S. Navy, the third alternative probably can be ruled out. Chances are strong that we will do something to help Greece.

The chances are also strong that we will follow the first alternative, and let a British-Puppet government continue to bungle. Politically, both for Congress and for Truman, this is the easiest way out. Furthermore, it is virtually what we have been doing already.

Actually, it makes little difference whether U. S. cash is spent by the British or a British-Puppet government, or by a new coalition government. As long as British troops dominate Greece the result is likely to be the same; continued turmoil —which plays right into the hands of Soviet agents.

As set forth in this column point by point last week, the British labor government is now paying for Winston Churchill's policy—a policy based on kings, bluster, phrase-making—and lend-lease tanks. Churchill's errors cannot be undone overnight. It will take a surgical operation.

Looking for the remedy, history shows that one of the very successful reconstruction jobs performed by the old League of Nations was in Greek Macedonia where the trouble-making Turkish population was removed, and where Greeks were taken from Turkish Anatolia and resettled in Macedonia. Previously there had been constant friction between the two countries. After the League performed this surgical operation, Greece and Turkey became good friends.

Today the old League of Nations, feeble and inefficient, is gone. Its place has been taken by a new United Nations on which millions of people pin their hopes for a future warless world. And the big question now is; will we circumvent the United Nations until it becomes weak and vitiated, or will we let it perform the peace-paving jobs for which it was formed and constituted?

—U. N. EQUIPMENT—

Today Greece needs money. The United Nations, in turn, has a world bank with the huge amount of $9,000,000,000 gathering dust in its treasury. The bank was established for the purpose of helping situations where the security of the world was in the balance—situations similar to Greece.

Greece also needs currency stabilization. The U. N. has a huge stabilization fund established for the very purpose of stabilizing foreign currencies.

Greece also needs for the moment a certain amount of police protection. Again, the U. U. has its joint military staffs, its security council, its blueprint for an international police force.

The Sol Blooms and others who believe in paying lip-service to the United Nations but not relying on it claim that Russia would be able to sabotage a United Nations administration of Greece. Unquestionably, Russia would try.

However, General MacArthur has shown that the veto power works both ways and that where Anglo-American forces have the upper hand, the veto keeps the Russians in their place. The Soviet is represented on MacArthur's governing council in Japan, but he was first on the Japanese scene and he runs the Japanese show. The same thing can be engineered in Greece.

—UNDER THE DOME—

Representative Walt Horan, Washington Republican, has been urging the radio networks to use better judgment in editing certain crime programs. He introduced a resolution for Congressional study of the problem, following which, Horan went home to find three of his four sons with their fingers to their lips as they huddled around the radio listening to one of the most gruesome of all crime thrillers . . . At the Polish Embassy the other night, a Polish newsreel showed Herbert Hoover arriving in Warsaw on his food inspection trip. Whereupon the Embassy interpreter carefully explained to the audience of American newspapermen and government officials that this was Fiorello LaGuardia! . . . Hoover almost seemed to stiffen on the screen . . . In the midst of all the labor talk—talk on Capitol Hill, no one has bothered to mention the amicable settlement of the threatened west coast oil workers' strike. Scare headlines forecast the strike, which could have been as serious as a coal strike, but management and labor got together and worked the thing out without a work stoppage . . . . Jimmy Roosevelt has signed a contract with Kennedy-Buchman pictures for a film biography of his late father, but his brother Elliott and their mother are dead set against the idea, may try to block it.

We suggest bashing the door down—and letting Richard do what he wants to about it.

Scout Troop 444 Rates In First Aid

Boy Scout Troop 444, sponsored by the Escanaba Kiwanis club, and directed by Clarence Zerbel and Albin Starr, scored an "A" rating the troop first aid contest held at the junior high school Monday evening.

Three patrol first aid teams entered the competition, striving to make an "A" rating or 90 percent, out of a possible point score of 612. The three teams making the above rating were: Pine Tree Patrol—Conrad Desilets, P. L., Brian Corcoran, A. P. L., and Donald Guimond, David Gasman, Jerry Olson, members; Wolverine Patrol—David Zerbel, P. L., Bob St. Martin, A. P. L., and Conrad Luecke, Ralph Sivertsen, Robert Richards, David Mason, members; Eagle Patrol—Warren Johnston, P. L., Alfred Dufour, A. P. L., and Paul Brian, Peter Brian, Richard Deane, Albert Villemure, Dick Wellman, members.

The contest consisted of four problems, based on second class first aid in Scouting. The demonstration was judged by Dr. Rudolph Erickson, chairman of the Red Buck District health and safety, Clyde Bowles, also of the same committee, Albin Carlson and Harvey Germanson. All judges were well experienced in their work. The problem leader and timekeeper was Albin Starr, assistant S. M., with C. Zerbel, as recorder.

The next contest will be the neighborhood meet, which will be held March 31st in Escanaba, at the Junior H. S. meet to begin at 7:00 p. m. This contest will be based on first class first aid, dealing with more difficult situations.

The schedule of events and places for the 1947 first aid contests:

Troop Meets—Held at convenience of units participating, in own meeting place.

Neighborhood — Escanaba Junior H. S. March 31st.

District — Either Escanaba or Gladstone April 21st.

Council — Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 3rd.

Schedule Meetings On Crop Problems

A series of meetings at which farmers of the county will be invited to discuss their crop problems will be held in Delta county Thursday and Friday this week, it was announced yesterday by E. A. Wenner, county agricultural agent. D. L. Clanahan, Marquette, extension crops specialist, will be present.

Scheduled for discussion are: 1—Oat variety tests; 2—Potato ring rot control; 3—Soruces of good grain seed; 4—Spray demonstration results; 5—Small grain treatmentt; 6—The new root disease in oats, which the agent says is a serious threat about which the farmer should know more.

The meetings will be held at the following times and places:

Thursday — 2 p. m., Cornell town hall; 7:30 p. m., Kasten school at Hyde.

Friday—9:30 a. m., St. Nicholas church basement; 2 p. m., Bark River town hall; 7:30 p. m., Flat Rock town hall.

Obituary

GARY WARD DAHM

Funeral services for Gary Ward Dahm, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dahm, of Mt. Pleasant, were held at the Anderson funeral home chapel at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, with Rev. John Anderson of the Evangelical Covenant church, the officiating clergyman.

Mrs. A. J. Olson sang "When He Cometh" and "Just for Today," Mrs. John Anderson playing the accompaniments.

Burial was in the family lot in Cooks cemetery.

NELS SEDENQUIST

Final rites for Nels Sedenquist, of Escanaba, Route One, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Anderson funeral home. Rev. Gustav Lund, Bethany Lutheran pastor, will conduct the service. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

JOHN N. NELSON

Funeral services for John N. Nelson were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Boyce funeral home chapel. Rev. Gustav Lund of Bethany Lutheran church officiated at the rites.

Miss Ruth Glad was pianist and girls of the senior confirmation class sang "Jesu Refugee of the Weary" and "Love Divine, All Love Excelling."

Burial was in Gardens of Rest cemetery. Pallbearers, members of the Painters and Decorators Union, Local 811, were Gabriel Nilsen, Rolf Nelson, Anton Hogan, Henry Marenger, Alfred Sviland and Ivan Dahlquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Knisley, of Alton, Ill.; John James Nelson, of Kimberly, Wis.; and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nelson, of Racine, Wis., were among those attending the funeral.

ROBERT OHO

Last rites for Robert Oho will be held this afternoon at one o'clock at the Riento hall in Rock, with Theodore Warmanen officiating. Burial will be made in Rock cemetery. The body will be removed from the Allo funeral home to the hall at noon today.

Fangs Of Gossip Theme In Radio Show This Week

Human nature in the free state seems to dictate that we think the least of our fellowmen until they show themselves otherwise. It takes strong character and an abiding faith, seemingly, to convince ourselves of the goodness and trustworthiness of others.

For Faith Gardner in "The People versus Faith Gardner" by Ralph Klein the situation is unbearable as she finds even her husband dubious and later convinced of a guilt which a criminal court could not convict her of nor prove.

The leading role in this production of Civic Theater. to be heard on the "Thursday at Eight" program over WDBC, will be played by Margaret Gilbert. Her husband "Tom" will be enacted by Mac Danielson and Robert Winslow, the attorney, will be the role of Ned Oshins.

Walter Clifton, character who sets the stage for the drama, is to be played by Percy Weinberg while Gwen, sultry night-club entertainer who loves him along with a score of other women, falls to Mary Vaughan.

Grace, sister of Faith Gardner's husband, is the role of Ruth Klabunde. Thelma and Gardner Eversole will be the other voices heard.

Musical background will be under the supervision of Mary Roberts and Margaret Gilbert: sound effects are going to be provided by Jean Trantanella and Thelma Eversole. Don Aronson will be engineer. Gordon Flath is director and coordinator for the dramatic presentation.

Members of the listening audience are requested to communicate with the theatrical group by postcard indicating their preferences and criticisms.

Girl Scouts Of America Celebrate 35th Birthday

GIRL SCOUTS THEN AND NOW . . . Joan Nugent (left) and Joan Lineen, of New York, pose "family portrait" style in official Girl Scout uniforms of 1912 and 1947.

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY

"I have a wonderful idea," Daisy Low enthused to a friend 35 years ago in Savannah, Ga.

It was and it is a wonderful idea: the Girl Scouts of America, which has had four million members in the ensuing years and is still a-growing from the seeds which vital, energetic Juliette (Daisy) Gordon Low brought with her from England.

The year 1912 belonged to the generation which believed wholeheartedly that a woman's place was in her long skirts and that any great amount of physical activity overnight turned a gentle, maidenly teen-aged into a "tomboy."

So Mrs. Low, who had seen the development of the Girl Guides and the Boy Scouts under the leadership of the Baden-Powells in England, had rather rough going in some of the early Scouting progress. A woman of great drive, unbounded confidence in her own ideas—and conveniently hard-of-hearing—the heroine of the American Girl Scouts succeeded in overcoming all objections.

From small beginnings — the meetings of a couple of Scout troops (named after flowers) where the girls discussed homemaking and learned rudimentary firts aid—Girl Scouting has become almost a must for the growing American girl and its courses include everything today from domestic science to marine navigation to actual aviation courses. Its basic theme then was good citizenship, and it still is, for the keynote of the 35th anniversary of Scouting is "better citizens build a better world."

Most of the Girl Scouts in Mrs. Low's original White Rose and Carnation troops are willing to reminisce about the early days of Scouting on the drop of a hat. The organization meeting of a group of seventh and eighth graders was held in the carriage house of Mrs. Low's family. Refreshments were cocoa and cookies.

The whole program revolved around that of the English Girl Guides. The first uniforms, made by a Savannah tailor, recently were described by "the very first Girl Scout in America." Mrs. Low's niece, now Mrs. Daisy Gordon Lawrence of Savannah.

Early Uniforms

"The girl's uniforms were dark blue denim middy blouses with light blue ties, pleated skirts and hideous, round, blue felt hats."

Despite parental frowns, the girls took good sportsmanship seriously—and started with sports. Basketball was the most popular game among the young Scouts and one of the first Scouting crises occurred because the youngsters wanted to doff their pleated skirts and play in their long, black bloomers.

A compromise was worked out during warm weather so that the young Scouts could wear long coats to their playing field, arrange huge canvas curtains around the field, and then, safe from prying eyes, could play in the comfort of their athletic bloomers.

The time was ripe for the development of Juliette Low's import, and soon troops of Girl Scouts were springing up throughout the country. Today, the age group has been stretched in both directions, so that a quota of Brownies, children from seven to ten, and Senior Scouts, over 17, are important parts of the million and one-quarter Girl Scouts who at this moment are members of troops.

Famous Members

Bette Davis, the motion picture actress, was a Girl Scout and is proud of it. So was Dorothy Lamour. Young Mary HacArthur, daughter of Helen Hayes, was a bright star until recently of a Nyack, N. Y. troop.

In connection with celebrating their 35th birthday, the American Girl Scouts are emphasizing the importance of international scouting, first with a "world encampment" at their Camp Barree in Pennsylvania from June 26 to July 16. Delegate Scouts from 40 countries have been invited as well as girls from every state and territory.

Then the Scouts will launch a campaign to fill one of their own greatest needs—20,000 adults to become Scout leaders.

Muriel Peterson Wins First Place In EHS Spelldown

Muriel Peterson, sophomore in Escanaba senior high school, took first place in the all-school spelling match held in the school yesterday morning. She successfully spelled all words falling to her both in the preliminary elimination match to determine which student would represent the entire class in the finals and in the final itself.

Kenyon Haring won first place entitling him to represent the senior class in the finals and Conrad Driscoll in the junior class spelled his way to the finals. At least seven students from each grade were in the preliminaries. Muriel competed with these two in the finals.

The winning word which won Miss Peterson a pen and pencil set as selected by the National Honor Society was 'squalor'. There were others however which could have stymied many. Some of these were "kaleidoscope," "conglomeration," "vicissitude" and 'hackneyed."

Allen Mathison pronounced the words to the contestants and members of the National Honor society assisted in conducting the match. Miss Irma Bangs, faculty advisor of the Honor society, presented the awards to the three finalists, Kenyon and Conrad receiving mechanical pencils, while Muriel received the grand prize.

Elda Holmquist Is City Editor Of University Daily

Former Escanaba Girl Is Honored

A Paris, Kentucky, social item of interest here is that describing a tea at which Mrs. Walter C. Dalby entertained for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank N. Dalby, a recent bride.

The new Mrs. Dalby, who now lives in Paris, is the former Bette J. Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Magdaline Johnson, of Tucson, Arizona, who made her home in Escanaba for many years.

The tea table at the party was centered with an all-white arrangement of gladioli, snapdragons and carnations, flanked by lighted candles in silver candelabra. Two hundred guests called to meet the bride during the afternoon.

Maine produced 43 per cent of the total 1946 production of certified seed potatoes—more than any other state. The total was approximately 18.2 million bushels.

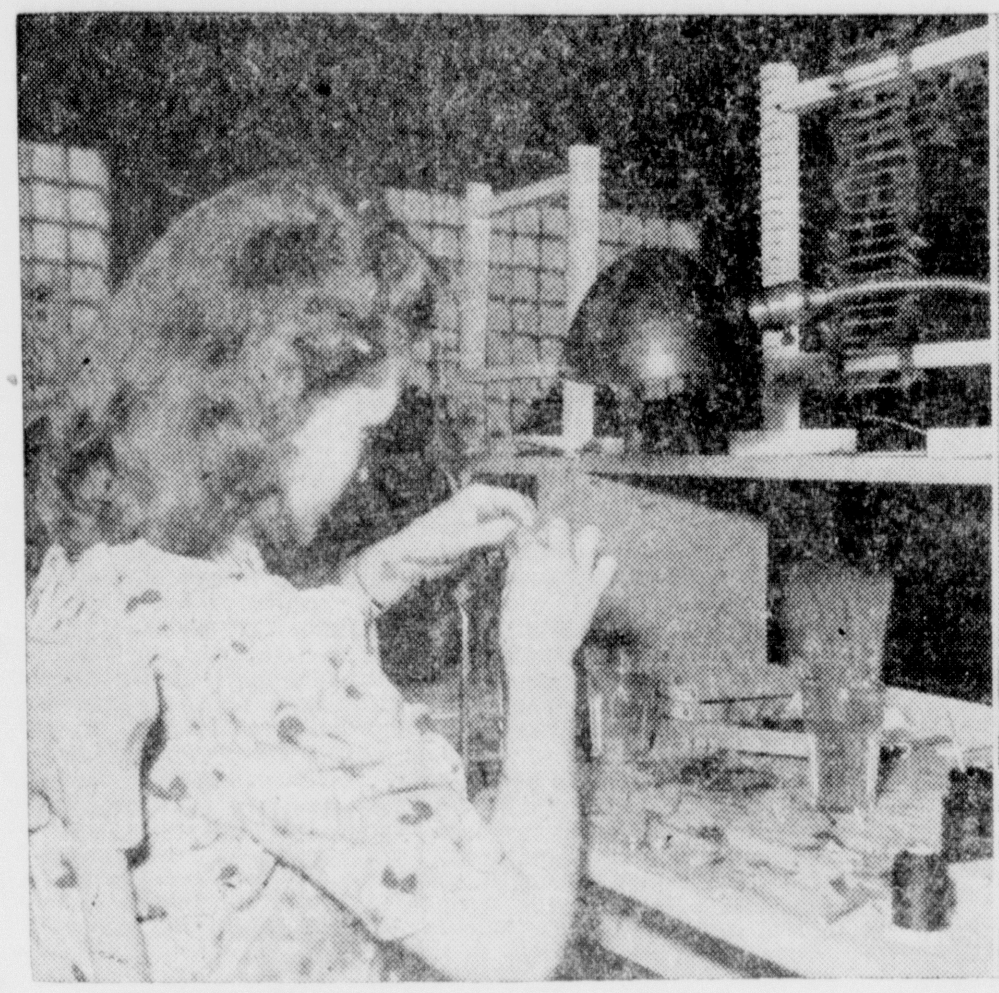
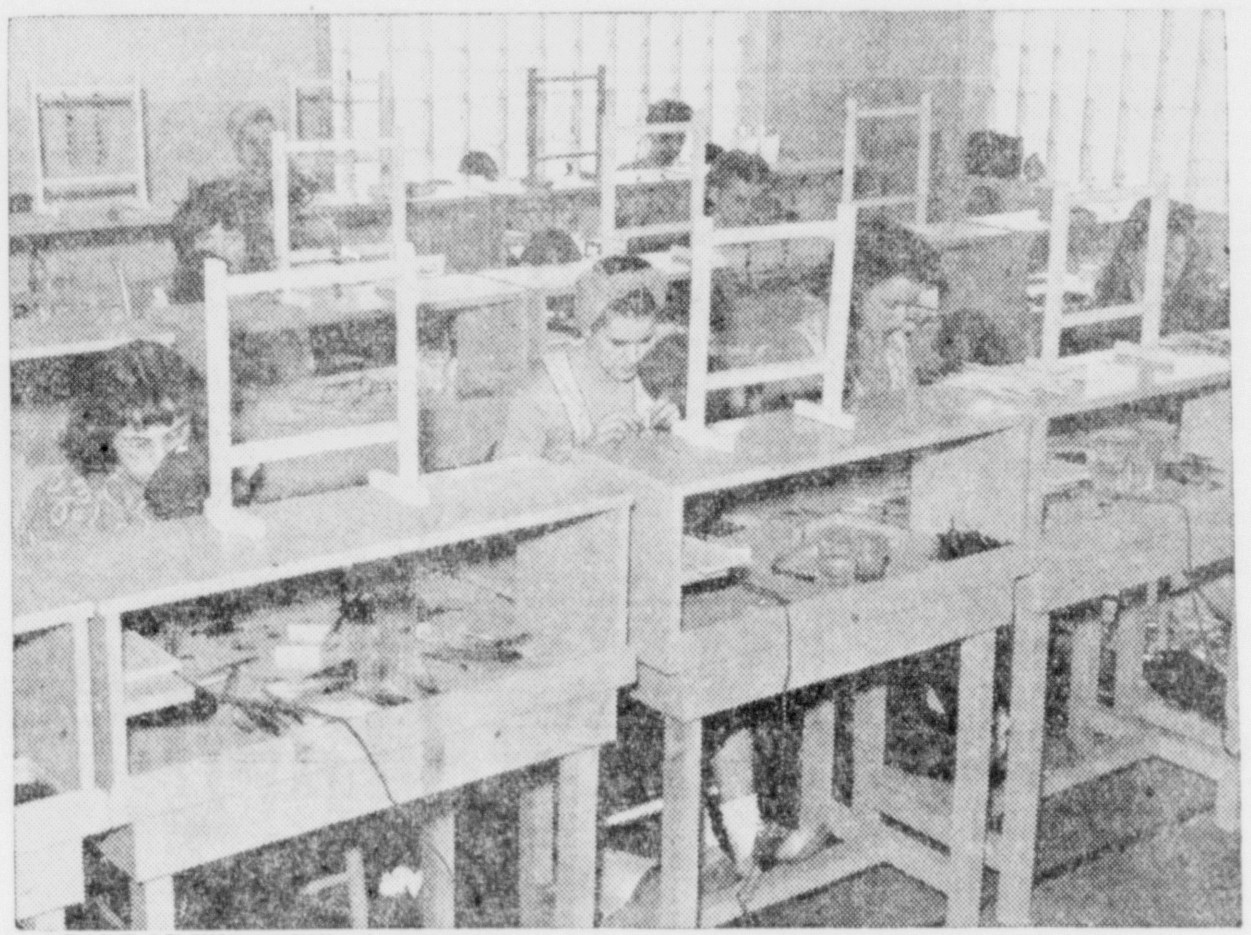
Worth Company Starts Fly-Tying Industry In Escanaba; Big Expansion Being Planned



ARTIFICIAL BUGS—Bertha Strykoski, pictured here at work on a fly-tying bench, shows how the artificial bugs are created to fool even the most fastidious fish. When a girl becomes proficient at fly-tying, she can produce quite a few dozen of these artificial but realistic bugs in an eight hour day. Feathers of many kinds, bits of cloth, colored thread, etc. are used to manufacture the various species of trout and bass flies.

SUPERVISOR—Lillian Frasher, of Escanaba, is supervisor of the women personnel at the Worth Company. Miss Frasher took a 10 week course in fly-tying and inspection at the Worth Company's headquarters in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. She is training the girls employed here. In this picture Miss Frasher is inspecting some of the flies produced here.



PART OF THE CREW—At present there are 19 girls employed in the fly-tying department of the Worth Company. This crew will be increased as rapidly as additional employes can be trained. The girls have a three months training period and work 40 hours a week. At present the girls are making trout flies but later they will also make bass flies. The Worth company also employs men in the production of reinforcing steel for prefabricated concrete sections and later will make split rings and other products at Escanaba.

Briefly Told

Serving in Florida—Leland H. Bryson, aviation chief machinist's mate, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bryson of 1215 Second ave. south, Escanaba, Mich. is serving in the huge assembly and repair department at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla.

This plant, one of four in the Navy, has a staff of over 13,000 men, all trained and qualified to execute the tremendous task of overhauling hundreds of aircraft every week. Combined with the Assembly and Repair Unit at Norfolk, Va. these two facilities are responsible for the upkeep and performance of all aircraft on the East Coast and in the Atlantic Fleet.

HEARING DATE IS MARCH 22

Alger County Board To Have Formal Airing Of Road Fuss

Munising—The Alger county board of supervisors decided during their meeting at the court house Tuesday afternoon to hold a formal hearing March 22, at 10:00 a. m., in the case of citizens' complaints against the county road commissioners.

This formal hearing will be held for the purpose of deciding whether the board of county road commissioners of Alger county should or should not be removed from office, it was stated.

The motion to hold the hearing was made by Gibson, and supported by Oullette.

The body of the resolution passed reads as follows:

"Whereas, it appears to the Board of Supervisors of Alger county, from the nature of the evidence presented in this matter, that a formal hearing should be had for the purpose of deciding whether the Board of County Road Commissioners of Alger county should or should not be removed from office;

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of Alger county, go on record as approving the institution of statutory proceedings for the purpose of conducting a formal hearing to decide whether the Board of Road Commissioners of Alger county should or should not be removed from office pursuant to Section 3981 of the compiled Laws of the State of Michigan for 1929, being Section 9106 of Michigan Statutes Anotated; and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said hearing be held within the next fourteen (14) days and that the Board of Supervisors appoint three members of the Road and Bridges Committee for the purpose of preparing the charges to be filed."

During the afternoon session yesterday, the board, after delibating over the reports of the citizens' committee, it's own highways and bridges committee and the road commission, asked the opinion of Attorney R. E. O'Brien, legal advisor to the board, as to just what action was necessary if the road commission was to be removed.

Attorney O'Brien stated that in his opinion every man should have his day in court and that if the board found sufficient evidence to warrant it, the road commission could be called into court.

He added that in order to oust the commission, which the board has authority to do, it would take the same majority to oust them as it did to put them in office.

After the resolution to hold a formal hearing had been passed yesterday, it was moved by McAllister and supported by Ouellette that the highways and bridges committee appoint their own committee for the purpose of preparing the charges to be filed against the road commission.

EDEN LUTHERAN EVENTS

Munising—The weekly Bible school of the Eden Lutheran church will meet Wednesday at 10:15 a. m.

The junior Confirmation class will meet at 4:00 p. m. Wednesday.

We agree with the wife who claims that driving from the back seat is no worse than cooking from the dining-room table.

Little Mary was visiting her Grandmother in the country. Seeing her first peacock, she cried: "Oh, granny, look! One of your chickens is in bloom!"

* * *

First Father: "Has your baby learned to walk yet?"

Second Father: "Heavens, no! Why, he hasn't even learned to drive the car!"

* * *

No matter how young they learn, teach them to bring the car here for gas, oil and lubrication. That's the way to keep it in top-notch driving condition.

Social Welfare Agency Reports '46 Activities

Munising—A yearly report compiled by Miss Margaret Lipsett, Alger County Director-Supervisor of the department of Social Welfare shows that:

During the past year the number of cases receiving Direct Relief from the Alger County Department of Social Welfare has increased slightly. The amount of money spent each month for Direct Relief purposes has also risen, due in part to increased living costs. For the month of December, 1945 there were 41 Direct Relief cases consisting of 97 individuals who received a total of $1,254.07. In December, 1946 51 cases consisting of 134 persons received $1,457.24. During 1946 a total of $13,613.71 was dispersed for Direct Relief. These funds consist of 25% county money and 75% is contributed by the state.

The total amount spent for hospitalization, exclusive of the University Hospital, for 1946 was $4,256.67 which is made up entirely of county funds.

The Alger County Infirmary was closed during the prior year, but the cost to the county in 1946 for maintenance prior to sale was $954.88.

To administer these programs Alger County employed three persons and paid out a total of $2,277.13. These employees also work for the state in administering Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children and Aid to the Blind and the state pays part of the salaries.

Along with relief, Old Age Assistance rolls have increased from 306 in December, 1945 to 331 in December, 1946. The amount spent for this program in Alger County increased from $9,305.70 for December, 1945 to $11,529.30 for December, 1946, and the average grants rose from $30.41 per month in December, 1945 to $34.83 in December, 1946. This was due to rising costs of living and an increase in allowances for food and clothing.

In December, 1945 there were 35 recipients of Aid to Dependent Children in Alger County who received $2,060.30 or an average grant of $58.86. One year later this had increased to 52 recipients who were paid $3,735.50 making an average grant of $71.84. Besides receiving additional food and clothing allowances this group received an increase in maximum grants allowed. The previous maximum were $60.00 for one child and $9.00 for each additional child, and effective October 1, 1946 the maximum grants were raised to $70.00 for one child and $9.00 for each additional child. This does not mean that all families with the specified number of children received these amounts, but simply means that they could receive the amount of their needs up to these amounts, but grants could not exceed the maximum established.

Alger County has an unusually large Aid to the Blind roll for a county of this population. In December, 1946 there were 7 recipients compared to four for Schoolcraft County and three for Mackinac County which have about the same population. Chippewa County which is considerably larger had only four cases during the same month. The seven blind individuals in this county received $263.30 in December, averaging $37.61. This is an increase from $32.47 which was the average amount received in December, 1945. The maximum grant for Aid to the Blind was increased from $40.00 to $45.00 a month during the year.

Funds for Public Assistance come from the Federal Government and the State.

Another program which is administed by this agency and paid for through Federal and State funds is the Division of Services for the Blind. At the present time there are five individuals who qualify as legally blind, i. e. have 20/200 vision or less who are at present or will receive either physical restoration or training or perhaps both.

Youths Break And Enter Five Cabins At Grand Marais

Munising — Breaking and entering of cabins in Grand Marais ended Monday when sheriff Arthur Moote and state trooper Cpl. J. C. Carstensen apprehended three boys, ages 11-12, of Grand Marais.

According to the state trooper, the boys had broken and entered five cabins during the past month. Entrance was gained by breaking locks and shutters, the trooper said.

Once inside the cabin the intruders broke furniture and generally ramsacked the place. They also "lifted" a few small articles, the officers reported.

The three boys will be taken before probate court in a few days, the investigating officers stated.

Persons owning cabins which were broken into were: John VanDeberry, Edward Thompson, Charles Kahle, Louis Dowell, and Iran Cole.

Sea Scouts Spend Night On Island

Munising—Munising Sea Scouts under Anton Louis, skipper, spent Saturday night out in the open on Wood Island, by choice, according to a report of activities by Jim Jacka.

In his report, Jacka stated that the Sea Scouts left Munising on foot at 1:30 p. m. Saturday and arrived at the Island at 3:45.

Jacka then went on to say:

"We looked for a spot to camp. Finding it, we 'dug in' through four or five feet of snow and built a fire; later on, we built a lean-to of cedar boughs for shelter.

At 6:30 p. m. we had supper then fixed our sleeping bags. At nine o'clock we went for an evening hike and returned to our base camp at 1:30 and turned in at 12:00 p. m.

Arising at 8:15 a. m. Sunday, we made breakfast after which we went for a walk around on the Island to see what nature was like—coyotes' signs were plentiful. Returning to camp, we ate our dinner and then started back for Munising at 2:00 p. m. We got home at 4:30."

Besides the skipper and Jim Jacka, the following boys made the trip: Paul Arsenault, Fred Krajewski, Bill Reynard, Richard Nebel, Jim Cox, and Gene Louis.

Today Marks 35th Birthday Of Girl Scouts In America

Today, March 12, marks the thirty-fifth birthday of the Girl Scouts in America. Its membership has grown from 20 girls to more than a million. Two hundred of these Girl Scouts are here in Gladstone, carrying on the same program, living up to the same code of ethics of the Girl Scouts and Girl Guides all over the world.

The training of a Girl Scout is realistic but never selfish. It is designed to widen individual vision, to teach the value of personal example and the dependence of people on each other. Girl Scouting is valuable to every community because those who are trained in good citizenship are best qualified to choose between types of leadership. Now, more than ever, it is vital to support that leadership which can lead to unity and peace, and avoid that which leads to conflict.

The Girl Scout program is an American program for American girls, and is conceived and executed in the best traditions of this country. The theme for the year 1947 is "Better Citizens for a Better World." This theme is the basis for all work done this year in the field of International Friendship.

Troop 6, led by Mrs. Clyde McGonagle, has just finished an interesting project on Finland. Packages of seed were sent to that country by the girls in the troop, and a study of the country, its songs, dances, and peoples, accomplished during a two month period. Other troops have made and filled Friendship Bags to send to Scout troops abroad. In these bags the girls put toothbrushes, needles, thread, buttons—all the hard to get small but necessary items for daily living. Some troops are now working on play kits to be sent abroad, so that the Girl Scout troops will have craft materials with which to carry on their programs.

It is hard to dislike that which one understands. Understanding of others and a respect for all is part of the Girl Scout program.

Another part of the program that is very important to the girls is the out-of-door activities. These activities are carried on by the troops through hikes, cook-outs and troop camping. The Gladstone Council is hoping to offer day camping to the girls again this summer. Camp Timber Trail near Munising will be open again to those girls who want to participate in a longer camping period.

The entire program of Girl Scouting includes the following fields: Home making, arts and crafts, health and safety, sports and games, international friendship, music and dancing, community service, nature, literature and dramatics, and camping. The program chairman of the Gladstone Girl Scout board, Mrs. Seymour Lewis, and her committee have done a splendid job of helping the leaders to plan with their girls a year-round program that will touch on these ten fields.

It naturally follows that to give the girls of Gladstone a good, wholesome experience such as Girl Scouting has to offer, the girls need proper leadership — trained leadership. Mrs. Ray Gazley, the training chairman of the board, is able to offer to new leaders that necessary training through national training schools or local leadership courses. The girls need leaders!

Persons wishing to volunteer their services in this capacity and make this birthday anniversary even happier should contact Mrs. O. S. Hult, president of the local council.

Dept' Gets Real Workout At Terrace

To the Gladstone fire department can go much of the credit for saving the Arthur Pouliot home adjoining Terrace Gardens, destroyed by fire Monday afternoon.

Fire Chief Wm. Marshall, Carl Johnson and Elmer Closs of the local department responded after getting the call and placing the pumper on the ice of Little Bay de Noquet furnished the water used in fighting the blaze.

Later in the afternoon the stream was relayed through the Escanaba pumper which had remained on the scene. This provided two outlets or use of two hoses.

During the afternoon three other members of the local department, Ed Haga, Ken Johnson and Earl Closs joined the others in the losing fight to save the dance hall and bar.

The pumper was on the scene for nearly ten hours, being returned to the fire hall Monday night about 10 o'clock, and really got a workout.

About 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the pumper was again sent to the fire scene when smouldering embers near the home were fanned into a blaze.

LOCAL CHURCH CALLS PASTOR

Presbyterian Church Asks Illinois Man To Serve Here

Members of the Church of the Redeemer, Presbyterian, have issued a call to the Rev. C. Harrison Becker, of Morrison, Ill., to come to Manistique and serve as their new pastor. The invitation came as a result of a meeting held at the church Monday evening called to discuss prospects of securing a successor to the Rev. William Harvey who resigned last November. The Rev. James H. Bell, of Escanaba, presided as moderator at the meeting.

Rev. Becker, who conducted services here as trial minister on February 16, has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Morrison since 1928 and reports concerning him have been very favorable. He and Mrs. Becker are the parents of two children, both of whom have reached adult status and have homes of their own. Although Rev. Becker's coming here is still subject to his consent, he expressed himself when here as very much impressed with Manistique and the church and his acceptance of the call may be taken as a foregone conclusion.

Should he accept, it is expected that he will come to take charge shortly after Easter.

In the weeks that the church has been without a minister, the Rev. Harold Martinson and J. D. B. Harold Martinson and Rev. J. D. B. Adams have supplied the pulpit.

Easter Seal Drive Sponsors Met Tuesday

Plans for local participation in the 14th annual campaign for the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults were perfected at a meeting at Denney's private dining room Tuesday afternoon.

The Schoolcraft County Lay Committee, which is sponsoring the sale of Easter Seals by which the project is financed, has taken action to advance the mail campaign this week and the school campaign later, Mrs. Carl F. Anderson, chairman of the drive announces.

At the dinner meeting, Mrs. Frank Arrowood gave a report of the society's convention at Battle Creek last fall.

Dr. E. J. Brenner, county health physician, talked relative to the way his department is cooperating in the movement.

The local chapter realized $651 in seal sales in last year's campaign and the officers are anxious that this splendid showing be repeated this year. The campaign ends Easter Sunday.

Recruit Station Now At Escanaba

The regional recruiting station, which for the past two years has maintained headquarters in the basement of the post office building, is now located in Escanaba, Sgt. James R. McCormick, of the recruiting staff reports.

Sgt. McCormick states that he or some other member of the staff will visit Manistique every Monday in order to be of service to any who may wish to enlist or who may wish information concerning the service.

Grand Marais

G. M. Wins Again

Grand Marais, Mich. — The Grand Marais basketball team made it two straight over the fast Newberry Papooses when they nosed them out by a 30-28 score at Newberry Friday evening.

Mattson of Grand Marais took scoring honors wth 16 points.

This Saturday the Grand Marais team travels to the Soo where they will play in the district tournament. If successful there, they will enter the U. P. finals at Marqquette the following week.

Fans Attend Game

Among the group of fans who attended the basketball game at Newberry were the following: Mrs. Art Goupelle, Rudy Goupelle, Joan Vercellino, Francis Martin, Norvin Le Febvre, Mary Ellen Tellier, Grace Watson, Parmera Masse, Dorothy Dowell, Matt Nyman, Richard Wood, Harold Eichelberg, Roy Murphy, Adele Mulligan, Doris Hendricks, Joyce Davis, Ruth Olli and Beatrice Kane and Alfred Lundquist.

Spears Fish

Due to the heavy field of ice off the Grand Marais shore several fishermen are attempting to spear fish here. Joe DesJardin was successful when he speared a 7 lb. lake trout here Sunday.

V. F. W. Party

The V.F.W. held a party at the Masonic hall here Saturday evening. The party marked the first anniversary of the local post. The party was complete with a 3-tiered anniversary cake. Members of the V. F. W. Women's Auxiliary were guests of the evening.

Personals

Carol Sayen is ill with pneumonia at the Newberry Clinic where she was taken by her parents Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Buckland and children are spending a few days in MacMillan with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Savage and Frank Picel left Saturday on a business trip to Detroit.

Douglas Mulligan, Mrs. R. Wilhite, Janie and Judy Mulligan and Clarencce Nettleton were callers in Munising Saturday.

Kenneth Steven Recently Married In St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Steven and daughter, Mary Lee, Indian Lake, have returned to their home here from St. Louis, Mo., where they attended the wedding of their son, Kenneth, to Miss Ruby Mauzy of St. Louis. The wedding took place on March 7 at 8 p. m. at the home of Rev. F. A. Lowry.

The bride was attired in a gray suit with black accessories. She wore a white orchid. The bridesmaid, Miss Geraldine Mauzy, sister of the bride, wore a similar suit and a corsage of red roses. Ray Smith, friend of the young couple, served as best man.

Mrs. Mauzy chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy blue dress with white accessories, while Mrs. Steven, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black dress with white accessories. They wore corsages of talisman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Steven left later on a short trip to Chicago, after which they will return to St. Louis where the bridegroom is employed at the Monsanto Chemical Co.

Baptist Young Folks To Hold Singspirations

Young people of the two local Baptist churches—the Bethel Baptist and the First Baptist—are cooperating in conducting Singspiration services each Sunday night holding services between the hours of 9 and 10 and alternating between the two churches.

These services are not, in any sense preaching services, but occations devoted entirely to the singing of gospel hymns, with groups and special choruses and sometimes solos lending diversion to congregational singing.

The young people met last Sunday evening and made plans for future meetings and will hold the first Singspiration next Sunday evening at 9 o'clock at the First Baptist church.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to come and join in the singing of old and new gospel hymns.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when the lower part gets blocked food may fail to digest properly.

Ex-Servicemen Anxious To Earn License To Fly

Maybe its the touch of spring that gives them that spectacular urge, then again, it may be a strictly bread and butter proposition, but Ed Jackson, of the Bow Jack Air Service at the Schoolcraft county airport, believes that most of the young men who are learning to fly under instruction of the service caught the flying fever while serving in some capacity in the Army or Navy Air Force.

At any rate thirty-seven young men are receiving flying instruction at the airport and practically all of them were members of some bomber crew in the late unpleasantness in Europe or the South Pacific. None of these men, however, had ever flown a plane before and they are enthusiastically grasping this opportunity to become pilots.

Pilot Merrill, recently from Washington Island, is flying instructor. Richard D. Jones is business manager. Those receiving instruction come from widely scattered areas, several coming from Grand Marais, some from Gould City, Garden and Cooks as well as from Manistique and vicinity.

CITY PONDERS CURB METERS

Pros And Cons Of City Charge For Parking Space Discussed

Are parking meters to be installed along Manistique's main business thoroughfares?

The question was given serious consideration at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening when Earl Doyle, of Ontonagon, a representative of the Perfection Parking Meter Co., was present to explain the nature of the meters produced by his company and discuss matters pertaining to their installation and acquisition by the city. These meters, he said, are designed to afford the motorist parking his car, parking space at the rate of one cent per twelve minutes or one hour for five cents. The company offers to install these meters at a cost of $58 each. Cost of installation will be paid for by payment of the first $5 collected by each machine. Following this the city is to give the company 50 per cent of the collections received until the meters are paid for. If at the end of the first year the meters are found to be unsatisfactory, the company will remove them at no cost to the city. Other methods of payment will be accepted, but this method is most generally accepted, Mr. Doyle said.

The subject was given much pro and con discussion. It was cited by Doyle that many cities in this area had profited by the meters, and that it had relieved the parking problem. The chief argument against meters brought up at the meeting was the probability that another police officer would have to be added to the city police force and that enforcing the meter ordinance would also become a serious problem.

The council came to no conclusions at the meeting.

Also at the meeting the council approved the appointment of Ken Van Eyck for member of the recreational committee. He was named to succeed Dr. N. L. Lindquist who recently moved to Escanaba.

The council voted to send a local police officer to the police officers training course to be held soon at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

The council approved for order by the city manager of a Flink spreader to be attached to certain city motor equipment to be used in spreading sand on icey paving and calcium chloride on unpaved streets in the summer.

REDSKINS EYE CLASS E CROWN

Hermansville Hopes To Top Successful Year With Tourney Win

Hermansville, Mich. — Coach Paul, De Ben and his Hermansville High School cagers, their eyes set on this week's cage tourney at Rapid River, completed their most successful season in 3 years when they won 9 out of 16 games.

The Redskins, a serious threat for the class E title, now loom as one of the pre-tourney favorites.

The scrappy Redskins were paced by Leno Pieropon, 15 year old cophomore and diminitive guard. Pieropon tallied 196 points on 72 field goals and 52 charity tosses to lead his mates. He is followed by George Furlick, center, with 110 points, and Hugh Allen, reserve forward with 85 tallies.

The same team that will compete in the Rapid River Tourney, except Henry Lombard, reserve center and Ernest Dani, reserve forward, will be back for next season, in which one of the greatest teams in the schools history is expected.

The scoring parade for the Redskins is as follows:

All-America Drafts 56-Game Schedule To Race Rival Gridders

Chicago, March 11 (AP) — The All-America Conference, still confident it can give the rival National Football League a run for the box-office money, today announced a 56-game, round-robin schedule for next fall, its second campaign.

The conference schedule, drafted in a two-day meeting of coaches and business managers, includes 14 games for each team on a home-and-home basis with the inaugural contest Friday night, Aug. 29, between the Los Angeles Dons and Chicago Rockets at Soldier Field, Chicago.

The slate is subject to approval by individual club owners, the Rockets were the only club to immediately release a home schedule which includes six Friday night games and one Sunday contest.

The coaches disclosed that a total of 270 players had been signed for next season, topped by Los Angeles with 45. The Championship Cleveland Browns, New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers have signed 40 each, followed by the San Francisco 49ers with 38, the Rockets with 26, the Buffalo Bisons with 23, and the New Baltimore entry with 18.

Coach Paul Brown, whose title-winning Cleveland team was the only real money-maker of the new circuit, expressed confidence the entire league would perk up at the cash till next season.

The Miami Seahawks fell by the wayside last season and the southern city's franchise was moved to Baltimore which Brown and the All-America officials generally feel will prove a strong spoke in the eight-club wheel.

Chicago's decision to play most of its home games on Friday nights was a reversal of policy by new owner-coach Jimmy Crowley, who previously said the Rockets would share the local scene with Cardinals and Bears of the National League on Sunday afternoons.

The Rockets' home schedule: Aug. 29, Los Angeles; Sept. 12, Brooklyn; Sept. 21 (Sunday afternoon), Buffalo; Sept. 26, Cleveland; Oct. 3, New York; Oct. 17, San Francisco; and Nov. 14, Baltimore.

Palm Beach Society Watches Hogan Win With Mike Phipps

BY JAMES F. FOWLER

Palm Beach, Fla., March 11 (AP) —Ben Hogan, professional from Hershey, Pa., and Mike Phipps, amateur from Palm Beach, won the eighth annual Latham R. Reed amateur-professional golf tournament today at the Seminole Golf Club with a best ball score of 63 for 18 holes.

Chick Harbert, of Detroit, and George Fazio, Los Angeles, split first and second money in the $15,000 pro division when both carded 138 for the 36-hole tournament. They each received $1,250.

With Palm Beach society turned out in its most colorful attire, the main attractions were the Dukes of Windsor and Marlborough, who drew large galleries but failed to place in the money.

Three amateur-pro teams shared second honors with 67's. They were pro Dick Metz, Chicago, and A. B. Chace, Providence, R. I.; Lew Worsham, Washington, D. C., and J. G. Douglas, Sr., New York; Denny Shute, Akron, Ohio, and J. R. Fell, Westbury, N. Y.

Claude Harmon, resident pro, received $700 second money with his 141 in the pro tourney. Johnny Bulla, Phoenix, Ariz., and Ben Hogan received $475 each third money with 142's. ony Penna, Cincinnati, earned $400 fourth money with his 143. Ellsworth Vines, Los Angeles; Jim Farrier, San Francisco, and Henry Picard, of Cleveland, carded 145's to receive $283 for fifth place, and Ed Furgol, Pontiac, Mich., and Vic Ghezzi, Knoxville, Tenn., earned $100 each with 146's.

Six teams split third honors in the amateur-pro tourney. They were Prince Alexis Obelensky, Palm Beach, and Harbert; P. Walker, of Chicago, and Bulla; C. N. Geis, Los Island, N. Y., and Harmon; George Curran, Jr., Palm Beach, and Fazio; H. Topping, Jr., New York, and Ghezzi; and J. Whitney, Palm Beach, and Craig Wood, Detroit.

The Duke of Windsor, clad in bright yellow sweater, and cream-colored slacks, finished with a corrected score of 68, but shot a 42-44—86. He was given an 18 stroke handicap for the tournament.

It is estimated that 1,000,000,000 shoes will be made and sold to Americans during 1946.

TROJANS PLAY ALUMNI FIVE

Girls Teams Tangle In Opener Tonight At 7:15 p. m.

Basketball will be served up in large bunches tonight at the Bonifas gym when representatives of both sexes, and of the Past, the Present, and the Future, as a group of alumni girls take on the Parochial girls, and the men alumni tangle with the men's varsity—for the edification of the fans and the purchase of athletic uniforms for the Trojans.

Be it noted, however, that the game tonight between the Trojans and the alumni is a regularly scheduled game, and will be scored and recorded as such. Goals scored tonight by the Trojan ace, Lewis, will count upon a personal score which has already broken a St. Joe record of 160 points set by Kleiman in 16 games in the 1941-42 season.

Lewis, already this season, has scored 186 points, playing in only 12 games.

Furthermore, the alumni game tonight is not set up with any idea of helping Lewis swell his record. The alumni starters, Joran, Stropich, Weber, Houle, and Young, have been playing City League basketball this season. The high school lads are up against very strong competition.

The St. Joe Parochial girls will play a preliminary game against a group of alumni girls, which will include the Parochial girls' coach and mentor, Doris Costley, and Geraldine Bink, one of the best girl basketball players ever turned out of St. Joseph's.

The girls' preliminary game will start at 7:15, the men's varsity game at 8:30; and in between the halves of these two games, St. Joe authorities have sandwiched a 7th and 8th grade filler-thriller, positively guaranteed to stir the pulse, stimulate the arteries, and tingle the toes of every red-blooded man and woman in the place, and all for the single price of admission, which will also, ladeez and gentlemen, help to buy uniforms for Trojan teams.

Following are tonight's players:

St. Joe Varsity

D. Lewis, C. Fassbender, J. Miron, C. Hirn, E. Henricksen, E. McCarthy, G. Harris, E. Viau, J. Murphy, G. Gleich, B. Courneen, C. Gafner.

Two Giant Players Hurt In Exhibition Win Over Indians

Tucson, Ariz., March 11 (AP)—In a costly exhibition game in which two players were injured, the New York Giants defeated the Cleveland Indians, 8-3, today to even the rivals' spring series at two and two.

Right Fielder Hank Edwards, Tribes' leading hitter, dislocated a bone in his right arm in the third inning when he fell trying to catch a pop fly hit by Willard Marshall. Edwards is expected to be sidelined for six weeks.

Larry Jansen, promising rookie hurler of the Giants, was hospitalized with fractures of bones in the left side of his face when struck by a line drive from Bob Feller's bat in the second inning. Jansen copped 31 games last season for San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League.

Edwards clouted an inside-the-park homer in the second frame before being injured, and the Tribe's Joe Gordon and New York's Bob Thompson also rapped round-trippers.

Feller, making his 1947 debut, worked easily during four innings and was rapped for eight hits and five runs as he was charged with the loss.

SOLES TO BUILD UP CARD SPEED

Club Trainer Turns Out Gadget To Make Boys Run Faster

BY JACK HAND

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 11 (AP)—Just to make things tougher for the rest of the National League, the jet-propelled St. Louis Cardinals have come up with a new gadget designed to make them run faster.

Harrison J. Weaver, club trainer, morale builder and phonograph tender, has perfected a new air foam inner sole that will make the Cards fly through the air with the greatest of ease.

"It's all in Chopart' joint," the Doc explains in language a bit above the level of a journeyman baseball writer, "that's the most important joint in the foot, if you can maintain the integrity of the heel bone opposite choparts,' your arch will stay up automatically. If the heel is straight, the arch will be kept up."

"It seems Weaver has been toying with the idea for the last five or six years. He gave away 700 copies of the old style before he perfected his revolutionary 1947 model. Only the Cardinals will have the benefit of his latest brain child, the result of a winter's work at his Columbus, Ohio, office.

"I had to hustle to get it done," the grey-haired Doc related," Mom and I often worked 18 hours a day and one day we worked 23 hours. All the time my new boat was down here in Florida, waiting for us to come down and go fishing."

Although Enos Slaughter was able to dash home from first base with the speed of light in the final game of the 1946 World Series, wearing last year's outmoded version it can't compare with the new model.

Skin Graft Made On DiMag's Heel

Baltimore, March 11 (AP)— Joe DiMaggio underwent a skin grafting operation at Johns Hopkins hospital today and inside a big bandage on his left heel was the answer to whether the Yankee slugger will miss another opening day when the baseball season starts rolling April 14.

Dr. Edward M. Hanrahan, plastic surgeon, said he was "very optimistic" about the 45-minute heel operation he performed this morning and indicated there is no doubt at all that Joe will be playing baseball again before long.

But the doctor would not go so far as to say when Joe will be out of the hospital, or how soon he may start working out with the Bronx Bombers.

BASEBALL

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 11 (AP)—Outfielder Terry Moore and Third Baseman George Kurowski won't see much action in the first few exhibition games, St. Louis Cardinal Manager Eddie Dyer said today.

Moore still is limping as he tries to get his legs in shape, Dyer declared and Kurowski's repaired right arm will keep him out of the lineup for a while.

"I'm going to give Tommy Glaviano a chance at third base and Charley Diering will be in center field at the start against the Yankees Wednesday," Dyer added.

Diering, who hit .277 with Rochester last year, will divide the outfield berth with Buster Adams until Harry Walker gets into shape. Dyer said Walker will probably understudy Moore this season.

Orlando, Fla., March 11 (AP)—A possibility that Buddy Lewis may be the key man in a trade arose today as the slugging Washington Senator outfielder worked out with the team for the first time this season.

The Senators, with a surplus of outfielders, are searching for a shortstop. The veteran Lewis is regarded as President Clark Griffith's best bait.

A reporter suggested to Griffith that he offer Lewis and Pitcher Walter Masterson for Shortstop Vernon Stephens of the St. Louis Browns. To this Griffith said, "I'll give $150,000 if you make that deal for me."

Clearwater, Fla., March 11 (AP)—Rattling out 17 hits for a total of 28 bases, the Detroit Tigers hammered the Philadelphia Phils 13 to 1 here today in their second exhibition baseball game of the year.

The Tigers ganged up on Righthander Charley Stanceu of the Phils for seven hits and six runs in the seventh inning to treat the crowd of 3,000 fans to a protracted batting spree.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout pitched the first three innings for the Tigers, gave only one hit and retired the opposition on 16 pitches. Freddie Hutchinson allowed three hits and Philadelphia's only run in his three frames.

Roy Cullenbine's homer, Hoot Evers' triple and doubles by Eddie Mayo, Ben Steiner, George Vico, Earl Rapp, George Kell and Harvey Riebe were the big blows of the Tigers' batting rampage as Kell, Rapp and Vico had two hits apiece.

Fullerton, Calif., March 11 (AP)—Bill Nicholson clubbed a 370 foot homer and Clyde McCullough added another circuit blow as the Chicago Cubs collected 14 hits to belt Los Angeles 9 to 1 today in an exhibition game.

McCullough, in addition to his homer, added two singles, and Peanuts Lowery contributed a triple and two singles.

Doyle Lade worked the first five innings for the Cubs and held the Angeles to two hits, both scratches, and walked only one. Bob McCall succeeded him and yielded a run in the seventh on a walk and two singles to the first three batsmen.

Three Chicago double plays added to the Angeles' sparse traffic on the base lines.

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., March 11 (AP)—A home run by Jerry Witte in the fourth inning proved to be the victory margin today as the St. Louis Browns defeated the Boston Braves 4-3 in an exhibition game.

The Braves scored single runs in the third, eighth and ninth innings while the Brownies added two in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Jimmy Wallace, who was wild, yielded the last three Brown runs.

Pasadena, Calif., March 11 (AP)—Aided by a four-run fourth inning put together on five passes and two hits, the Chicago White Sox today polished off the Seattle Rainiers 7-3.

The Sox' seven-hit attack was led by a long home run poled by Murrell Jones, who shared the first basing chore with Don Kolloway, in the eighth.

After a three-inning stint by Orval Grove, who did not allow a ball to get past the infield, Don Hanski took over. The Coast Leaguers collected all their runs on three hits and a catching interference by Jim Hill while Hanski was hurling in the sixth.

Pingel Of MSC Joins Reo Motors

Lansing, March 11 (AP)—John S. Pingel, former Michigan State college football star and backfield coach under head Coach Charles W. Bachman, will become advertising manager of Reo Motors, Inc., here March 15, the company announced today.

A former All-America halfback, Pingel became an administrative assistant in the office of the M.S.C. dean of students January 1 after Bachman resigned and the new coach, Charles L. Munn, brought in an entire new staff.

Pingel was a major in the provost marshal's department during the war. He was named to the 1938 All-America football team.

Archbishops and bishops of the established church are permitted seats in the British House of Commons.

DERBY DRAWS 135 NOMINEES

Famed Kentucky Horse Race Gets Cream Of Three-Year-Olds

BY MALCOLM PATTERSON

Louisville, Ky., (AP)— The 73rd running of Kentucky's famed derby here next May 3 drew 135 nominees from American racing's top three-year-old horses.

From the official nomination list announced Sunday will be chosen the select field that will parade to the post for the colorful mile-and-one-quarter "Run for the Roses," cash and glory at historic Churchill downs on the traditional first Saturday in May.

Last year, 149 horses were nominated in the winter for the 72nd derby. Seventeen competed as King Ranch's Texas-Bred Assault won to Post the first jewel of his triple crown. He went on to win Baltimore's Preakness and New York's Belmont stakes.

The 1947 Downs classic will be the second consecutive $100,000 added derby. Col. Matt J. Winn, who has directed 45 derbies and "has seen them all," said he anticipated "a crowd of 125,000."

The 85-year-old head man at the Downs last year saw his dream of a derby crowd of more than 100,000 come true. The official attendance was listed as 105,000.

This year's nomination list included 111 colt, seven Fillies and 19 Geldings, representing 93 ownerships. Horses owned by residents of Canada, Cuba and 25 of the 48 states were named.

Missing from the list were First Flight and Education, outstanding two-year-old Filly and Colt, respectively. Both were declared out of consideration earlier.

Forty-six of the 135 derby eligibles won or placed in stakes as two-year-olds. Thirty-three of the 149 named a year ago had done so as juveniles.

Among top two-year-old campaigners of 1946 named for the 1947 derby:

William Helis' Cosmic Bomb, winner of $98,565 last year; Maine Chance Farm's Jet Pilot, winner of $87,830; Ridgewood Stable's Double Jay, $77,550, and Heslis' Miss Kimo, outstanding Filly which earned $68,315.

Blue Border, now owned by the Greentree Stable, won $62,125 as a two-year-old. Warren Wright's five nominees included Fervent, Faultless, Pad Lock, Balanced and Peppy Nell, the last a Filly. Faultless a week ago won the Flamingo stakes in Florida.

Gould City

Gould City, Mich.—Mrs. E. J. McGuire of New Orleans is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Watts.

Mr. and Mrs. William Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks, Elaine Blanchard and Mrs. Elmer Blanchard spent Saturday in Manistique shopping.

A game party was held at the Rebecca and I.O.O.F. hall Friday evening. A lunch was served. Proceeds of the games went to the two lodges.

Jack Kempf left for Ann Arbor Saturday after visiting with his father, Charles Kempf.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne LaPine of Pontiac, formerly of Gould City, are the parents of a son. Mrs. LaPine's sister, Dalene Holt, is visiting in Pontiac with her.

Leon Rushford, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Henry Lockwood in Minnesota, returned home Sunday.

LUCKY THE SHERIFF'S BUSY THESE DAYS! IF HE CAME TO TOWN...
I'M HOLED UP OUT IN NOWHERE WITH MY GANG! I HAD TO LEARN WHAT'S GOIN' ON!
YOU SAY THE SHERIFF'S BUSY?
LIKE A GREENHORN ON A WILD HOSS, MOOSE! A BLANCO BASIN COWBOY NAMED RED RYDER TURNED OUTLAW!
RYDER! I'VE HEARD O' HIM! CRACK SHOT--- QUICK ON TH' DRAW!
A MAN LIKE THAT COULD HELP THE BAD BUNCH, EXCEPT THAT WE'D HAVE TO SPLIT OUR HAULS WITH HIM!

I GUESS TH' THIEF DID GET IN NIGHT BEFORE LAST, CAPT'IN! IT WAS WARM, SO THE WINDOWS WERE OPEN.
IF HE WAS TRAPPED IN THE CUPBOARD TILL LAST NIGHT, HE GOT LITTLE FOR HIS TROUBLE, EASY!
I'M NOT SO SURE, LEN! HE WAS NO ORDINARY THIEF.
BUT THE PLASTIC SAMPLE HE TOOK WON'T REVEAL HOW IT'S MADE - IF THAT'S WHAT HE'S AFTER!
WE DON'T KNOW WHY HE STOLE THAT YET. BUT THE FORMULA'S WORTH A FORTUNE TO A CLEVER CROOK WHO GETS IT AFTER YOU'VE FINISHED, AND BEFORE IT'S BEEN PATENTED!
BUT NO ONE CAN KNOW WHEN THAT TIME COMES...I'VE DISCUSSED MY PROGRESS ONLY TO YOU AND CLEO!
AND TO HIM, LEN! ...FOR THAT WAS WHILE HE HID IN THAT CUPBOARD, NOT 15 FEET AWAY!
